BRYAN RECEIVES JAPAN'S REJOINDER

Webb Law Regarded as Discriminatory by the Government at Tokio

A DIGNIFIED PRESENTATION

Ambassador Chinda in Conference With Secretary Bryan—Japan's Note of an Argumentative Nature—Response.

Washington, June 4.—Japan's rejoinder to the United States' reply to her protest against the California anti-alien land law, delivered personally by Ambassador Chinda to Secretary Bryan late today, sets out why the Tokio government continues to regard the Webb law as discriminatory against Japan in derogation of the qualities of treatment prescribed by international law, and a violation of the treaty of 1911.

The Japanese note was very long and its nature entirely argumentative. Secretary Bryan and Ambassador Chinda were in accord that no good purpose could be served at this time by a public discussion of the delicate question, and therefore, officials gave notice that any attempt to publish what might purport to be even the substance of the three communications which now have passed between the two governments must be based entirely upon speculation. It is known, however, that the whole tone of the rejoinder today is that of a dignified and orderly presentation of Japan's view on the case, concluding with an invitation to further negotiations. Nothing in the nature of an ultimatum is contained in the note.

Ambassador Chinda went to the State Department by appointment just before noon. Merely acknowledging receipt of the note and promising to consider Secretary Bryan requested the ambassador to wait while he read the communication and when he had finished there was an informal discussion.

Secretary Bryan was deeply interested in the points made in the Japanese rejoinder, which are believed to have been directed more to the end of demonstrating that the legislation of the Californians, taken in connection with the recent action of the Arizona legislature and the projected legislation in other Western States, tended to impair the equality of treatment to which Japanese were entitled under the general principles of international law, than to the charge that the Webb Act constituted a technical violation of the treaty of 1910, between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese ambassador was at the department for an hour and a half. He returned to the embassy to prepare a reply to his government indicating the nature of the reception of its communication by the State Department. Secretary Bryan went directly to the White House, where he left the Japanese note for the perusal and consideration of the President. It is expected that when Counsellor Moore returns to Washington tomorrow from New York, he will be called into conference by the President and Secretary Bryan to consider the outline of a response.

BURGAW HAPPENINGS

Rev. P. L. Clark Installed—Clean-up Day Observed—Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., June 4.—Dr. A. D. McClure preached the installation sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday, the occasion being the installation of Rev. P. L. Clark as pastor of this church. There was a large congregation and, as usual, when Dr. McClure preaches, they enjoyed a very fine sermon. In the afternoon of the same day Dr. McClure and Mr. Clark went to Keith church where Mr. Clark was also installed as pastor.

The Board of Education in session Monday passed a resolution asking the County Commissioners to levy a slightly increased tax for schools in order to provide a full four months' term.

Friends of Mrs. W. A. Brown, of Rocky Point, regret that she had to be taken to a hospital in Wilmington for an operation. They hope for good news from her.

Ex-Chief of Police Stell, of Raleigh, was in Burgaw Monday.——Mr. R. H. Paddison, Jr., of West Palm Beach, Fla., is visiting his father, Capt. R. P. Paddison, at Point Caswell. He and his bride have been on an extended tour North.——Miss Blanche Paddison left for a visit to friends at Reidsville, last Saturday.

The most striking feature of the bond election last Saturday was the fact that at least 90 per cent of the votes cast against the bonds were by voters in the country.

At the instance of the Civic League there was a clean-up day here a week or so ago and much good was accomplished. The league expects Dr. Nesbitt to deliver a lecture here soon on "How to Clean Up a Town."

There was a heavy rainfall in sections of the county today, not so very much in Burgaw, but it looked very stormy for awhile. No rain is needed just now for crops.

A REWARD DECLINED

Treasury Official Refuses to Make Recommendation Favoring McAdoo

Washington, June 4.—George E. Downey, whom President Wilson recently appointed comptroller of the treasury on recommendation of Secretary McAdoo, officially rewarded his sponsor today by declining to find any provision of law by which Mr. McAdoo may have an automobile at the government's expense. Comptroller Downey's word is final.

THE DERBY RACE SENSATIONAL

Daring Suffragette Attempts to Stop King George's Horse—Assembly of Royalty Witnesses Exciting Incident

Epsom, England, June 4.—Today's race for the derby, the "blue ribbon" of the British turf, was one of the most sensational on record. It was made memorable by a daring militant suffrage outrage, in which a woman was terribly injured while trying to stop King George's horse Anmer, when he was running at full speed round Tattenham corner; by the disqualification for bumping of Craganour, the favorite, after he had finished first; and by the award of the race with its stakes of $32,500 to Aboyeur, 100 to 1 shot.

King George, Queen Mary and a large assembly of royalties, were witnesses of these exciting incidents.

While interest in the classic was at its most tense point, just as the 15 horses were turning Tattenham corner into the stretch a woman rushed out of the dense crowd and plunged in front of the horses Agadair and Anmer, and seized the reins of both.

The horses were at the end of the string or the consequences might have been more serious. Agadair, ridden by Jockey Earle, passed in safely and unhurt, but the woman managed to Anmer's reins and brought down both horse and rider.

Jones, the King's jockey, received injuries necessitating his removal in an ambulance, while the woman was thrown under Anmer's hoofs and kicked. She was taken unconscious to a hospital suffering from severe injuries to her head. Suffragette papers are said to have been found in her possession, and a suffragette flag was bound around her body. Her name was given as E. Davidson.

Jones, the jockey, suffered from a cut in the head but his injuries otherwise were not serious.

Meanwhile, the race had ended in a close and exciting finish with Craganour, the favorite, proclaimed the winner. Then it became known that an objection had been raised, and after many minutes of suspense it was announced that Craganour had been disqualified for bumping in the stretch, and that the race had been awarded to Aboyeur who had made all the running and led except at the winning post. It is almost unheard of for an objection to be raised as to the winner of the derby. The last occasion was in 1844.

The stewards stated this evening that they did not disqualify Craganour simply for bumping during the latter part of the race, but because they were satisfied that Johnnie Rieff, jockey, has unduly interfered with other horses throughout a greater part of the race.

It is said by experts there was a remarkable amount of unfair, if not foul riding, and this year's derby is regarded as one of the most unsatisfactory in the history of the event.

A Reckless Feat.

All previous suffragette demonstrations were thrown into the shade by the sensation caused by Emily Wilding Davison's reckless feat.

Comparatively few of the 60,000 spectators intent upon watching the leaders of the race, saw the affair, which is likely to end in the first fatality of the militant campaign. Those nearest Tattenham corner had a glimpse of a woman darting directly in front of two galloping horses. She ducked almost under Agadier's neck to reach Anmer. Some say she waved her arms to stop the horse; said she seized the reins. According to some Anmer's shoulders struck her on her head; according to others the woman fainted just as the horse was upon her.

There was a scream and the King's horse fell, landing on the rider. When Miss Davison was picked up she was seen to have the suffragette insignia tied around her waist under her ulster.

At midnight the woman was still unconscious in Epsom hospital and the doctors say her condition is critical.

Miss Davison's career has been full of excitement. Once she flung herself down a prison stairway as a protest against forcible feeding and was badly injured.

AVIATOR FORCED TO LAND.

Meets Hard Luck in Encountering Stiff Winds.

Detroit, June 4.—Harry Atwood, aviator, who has been at Amhurstberg, Ont., since he was picked up in Lake Erie last Saturday night, started today in his hydro-aeroplane in an attempt to fly to Detroit, a distance of about 35 miles. He encountered high winds and was forced to make a landing at Ecorse, nine miles down the river from Detroit.

INCOME SECTION MUST BE AMENDED

To Avoid Unconstitutionality Senate Will Remedy the Defect

THE TARIFF BILL CONSIDERED

Framers of Income Tax Section Overlooked Important Feature—Various Arguments for Adjustment Are Presented.

Washington, June 4.—Before the Senate acts on the Underwood tariff bill the income section will be amended to remedy a defect, which, it was discovered today, would make the measure unconstitutional. When the framers of the income tax provision fixed January 1, 1913, as the date from which to compute incomes for taxation, they overlooked the fact that the constitutional amendment authorizing an income tax was not proclaimed as ratified until February 25th, 1913.

Aside from the constitutional defect arguments have been presented in favor of making the taxable income accrue for the first year from July 1st or later. As far as the constitutional limitation is concerned, it would be legal to compute incomes for 1913 from March 1st.

Senator Williams' sub-committee still has under advisement the scores of protests filed by officials of mutual life insurance companies against their inclusion under provisions of income tax law, and the committee still is considering an amendment which would give such mutual concerns exemption if they are able to prove, after the tax has been assessed, that they are not conducted for profit and that all of their surplus earnings are participated in by their policy-holders.

Among the briefs on this subject filed with the sub-committee is one by B. Steiner, a business man of Birmingham, Ala., which includes correspondence with Representative Underwood, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. In a letter to Mr. Underwood, Mr. Steiner cited the objections to taxing incomes of mutual life insurance companies maintaining that this would result in a tax on the policy holders who would really be taxed twice. Replying to this, Mr. Underwood wrote:

"You seem to overlook the fact entirely that these companies are being taxed under the present corporation tax law at exactly the same amount as they will be taxed in our income tax bill; that we are not levying on they what they do not pay at present. An ordinary corporation is organized for the benefit of its stockholders, a mutual life insurance company is organized for the benefit of its policyholders. In one instance the individual holds the stock, in the other instance the policy, and in both instances the corporation is operated to earn dividends or net profits for his benefit."

Arguments Epitomized.

In reply Mr. Steiner epitomized the arguments of the insurance presidents and others who are working for an amendment to the section as follows:

"The Federal court holds, under the present corporation tax, that so-called dividends in companies operating on the mutual plan are not dividends and can be deducted by a company in making its return. The language of the present bill clearly directs that the so-called dividends shall not be deducted.

"Moreover, by implication at least, under this bill, every maturing endowment and every cash surrender value amounting in any individual case to $4,000 or over would be taxed; and if such payments, plus the other income of the recipient, amount to $4,000 it will also be taxed. This phase of the tax would not fall on a company's net income, but will be a direct and heavy burden on individuals to whom the payments are made."

Action by the sub-committee, to be ratified by the Finance committee, in putting live stock and grains on the free list, returning on the free list also meats, flour and oat meal, it is expected will arouse protests from farmers and farm organizations, but the committee will hold to this solution of the problem presented in the Underwood bill of equalizing agricultural raw materials and their products.

Some increases in the rates on cotton yarns and more expensive textile fabrics, such as tapestries, have been agreed on, but in the chemical, metal, agricultural and sundries schedules, practically all the revision has been for decreases, and the free list will be considerably enlarged.

GRAND JURY PREPARING

For Investigation of Alleged Disclosures of Important Conference

Atlanta, Ga., June 4.—The summoning of a number of witnesses by the Fulton county grand jury today was taken as an indication that the grand jury proposes to begin tomorrow or Friday, an investigation of alleged disclosures which police department officials claim they obtained through the use of a secret telephonic device to record conferences alleged to have been participated in by Thomas B. Felder, prominent Atlanta attorney; Mayor James G. Woodward, C. C. Jones, proprietor of a near-beer saloon; G. C. February, secretary to Chief of Detective N. A. Lanford, and others.

The stenographic report of one alleged conference purported to contain evidence of an alleged attempt by Mr. Felder to induce February to furnish him with certain affidavits and papers relating to the Mary Phagan murder case, in the prosecution of which Felder was interested.

VICE PRESIDENT MARSHALL SPEAKS

Delivered Address Upon the Closing Day of University Commencement

THE GRADUATING EXERCISES

Awarding of Medals and Other Distinctions Conferred—Honorary Degrees for Marshall and Dr. C. Alphonso Smith.

(By Blake D. Applewhite.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., June 4.—Today marked the close of the 118th annual commencement of the University of North Carolina. Eighty-four members of the Class of 1913 received their diplomas this morning from the hands of Governor Locke Craig, and passed out into the State of full-fledged alumni of the University.

Promptly at 11 o'clock this morning the long line of faculty graduating students, trustees and alumni, which had formed at the east side of the campus, marched to the mammoth memorial hall, headed by a brass band. As soon as the last man in the line of procession had filed into the hall, fully 1,500 visitors thronged through the doors to see the graduating exercises, and hear the address of Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall.

After an invocation by Rev. R. T. Bryan, of Shanghai, China, President Venable, in appropriate words, introduced Vice-President Marshall. A storm of applause greeted the ex-Hoosier Governor as he arose to speak. After a witty sally at President Venable, for the generous words he had used in his introduction, the Vice-President of the United States launched into his speech in clear cut tones. Throughout his speech he tinged his remarks with his characteristic dry wit. He made references in turn to his impressions of North Carolina, of its citizenship, and of the Mecklenburg declaration. He then dwelt on the part that Thomas Jefferson played in political, religious and educational freedom. Near the conclusion of his speech Vice-President Marshall addressed his remarks more closely to the graduating class. He said: "I don't want to discourage these young men who stand before me, but I want to say that there are about 500,000 at this time of the year going out into the world upon the theory that the world is really waiting for them, and that the world really wants to give them all the good things there are in the world. There as a time when there were but three learned professions—the doctor, the lawyer and the minister, and that was in the good old time when we took the sickly boy of the family and made a preacher of him, and took the scoundrelly fellow and made a lawyer of him. They dropped that custom the year before I started to practice."

"Hitherto, the old North State has pre-eminently stood for the making of men—men of courage and convictons, men who could justify their standpoint as one which had not to do exclusively with self, but had largely to do with the community. From out her borders into every commonwealth of the Republic these men, stalwart in body, in mind and conscience, have preached the gospel of the Republic: Freedom of thought, freedom of speech and freedom of action, regardless of personal aggrandizement. This university has hitherto been justified by her children. It is not impossible to maintain high ideals and at the same time to succeed. If, however, there is not instilled into a man by academic training enough of patience, forbearance and courage to discredit personal success when a principle is at stake, then the institution has not sent forth a cultivated man. Each age has its prime need, as it had its unleashed pasion. The unleashed passion of today is for social success at any price. The growing need of today is for cultural men who know and dare maintain the right. May the citadel of principle builded here an hundred years ago never surrender to the storming forces of expediency. May men full of the rich blood of high ideals continue to be sent into the world. Whatever else the children of the Old North State may get here, let them continue to get wisdom and understanding."

SUGAR FORCES BEING PROBED

Activity of Sugar Tariff Forces Responsible for President Wilson's Lobby Charge—Examination of Senators Continues

Washington, June 4.—Ramifications of the sugar tariff fight being conducted outside the halls of Congress gave the Senate "lobby investigating committee" a busy two hours late this afternoon. With Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, as the chief witness members of the investigating committee pried into every phase of the fight between the free sugar and anti-free sugar forces; and established the fact that general offices are maintained by both factions, and that a systematic and organized fight has been carried on for and against the free sugar provision endorsed by President Wilson.

The activity of the sugar tariff forces was partially responsible for President Wilson's statement that powerful lobbying influences are at work in Washington to effect changes in the tariff bill. Several names were added today to the list of persons who are being subpoenaed by the Senate committee, and who will testify Saturday as to whether or not they are "lobbyists." These included employes of a bureau maintained here by the Louisiana sugar growers, and various persons who have been connected with the anti-free sugar fight.

Senator Ransdell discussed freely the organized activity of the Louisiana sugar cane growers, but he believed little money had been spent, as compared with the amount spent by Claus Spreckles, the Federal Sugar Refining Co., and Frank C. Lowry, of New York, said to be an employe of that company, in the attempt to create a public sentiment in favor of free sugar.

"I urged the Louisiana people to organize two years ago and combat this false sentiment that was being created in favor of free sugar," he said, "but they did not act in time."

Some light was thrown on the activity of Hawaiian and Porto Rican growers who also opposed free sugar, by the Senator. He denied there had been any concerted action among the three forces, and said the Louisiana growers had confined their efforts to distributing literature and presenting arguments to show that free sugar meant destruction to their business and no benefit to the consumer.

Senator Ransdell named Henry T. Oxnard, Truman G. Palmer, Sydney M. Ballou and A. D. Baldwin as leading figures in the anti-free sugar fight and said H. N. Pharr, J. D. Hill, Jules Burguires, Charles Godchalx, Jules Godchaux and E. F. Dickson were sugar planters who had "taken turns" in carrying on the campaign from the Washington headquarters. The investigating committee probably will finish taking the testimony of Senators tomorrow, and then will begin hearing outsiders whose names have been mentioned during the inquiry, who the committee had been given to understand should understand some of the facts. Many subpoenaes have been issued and tonight the names of J. E. Rhoades, F. R. Hathaway and Fred L. Fishback, of Washington, were added to the list. All of those mentioned today by Senator Ransdell probably will be called.

President Wilson had not sent any communications to the Senate up to tonight or indicated what further statements he wished to make. He already had given Chairman Overman the names of several men who might know something about Congressional "lobbying."

A list of more than 1,500 additional names was put in today by Senator Penrose, covering some of the persons who visited him while the Payne-Aldrich bill was being framed, and all his callers during the reciprocity and

UNPRECEDENTED LIQUIDATION

Conditions in Stock Market Culminate in Avalanche of Liquidation—Prices of Important Issues at Lowest Quotations.

New York, June 4.—Irregularity and heaviness which have been distinguishing features of the local stock market recently culminated today in an avalanche of liquidation during the first two hours, greater than any witnessed for many months, which carried prices of important issue to lowest quotations registered in a considerable period of time.

The movement centered largely about such representative stocks as Union Pacific, Reading, Great Northern preferred, Northern Pacific, Lehigh Valley, United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and American Smelting. Numerous other stocks of less prominence also felt the force of the impact, which resulted in an overturn of 500,000 shares by noon.

London had prepared this market in a measure for what was to come by sending over a list of prices "for Americans" ranging from substantial fractions to more than a point below yesterday's closing. Sales for foreign account were estimated at 25,000 shares and would have exceeded that figure, but for the fact that Europe bought quite liberally later as prices receded.

Among the many economic and technical causes which corroborated in greater or less degre to the retrograde movement, may be cited the distrust engendered by the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad receivership; discouragement at the apparent inability of the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific roads to arrive at a satisfactory solution of their troubles; recent liquidation in Canadian Pacific, bespeaking extreme financial tension across the Northern border, and over night dispatches from Washington indicating that the administration intends to renew action against so-called trusts, more particularly the tobacco interests.

Tobacco shares, on light dealings, declined from 5 to 17 points, the greatest losses being incurred by American Tobacco.

Decline Partially Checked.

The decline was partially checked during the afternoon upon advices from Washington that all reports respecting government prosecution were as yet premature. Short covering helped materially in the further recovery record in final dealings, but net results showed an unusually large number of severe losses.

Total sales approximated 800,000 shares, the day's business embracing probably a larger number of issues than on any day of the year.

NAVAL COURT OF INQUIRY.

Will Investigate Charges of Intoxication Against Officers.

Norfolk, Va., June 4.—After organizing and deciding upon a plan of procedure, the naval court of inquiry, which will investigate charges of intoxication preferred against Capt. John G. Quinby, commanding the receiving ship Franklin, by Rear Admiral Boyle, commandant of the Norfolk station, adjourned today until tomorrow morning, when the taking of testimony will begin.

The court has not yet decided to admit newspaper men to the hearing, although Capt. Quinby is anxious that the proceedings be open to the public.

The court is composed of Rear Admiral William B. Cuperton, president; Capt. W. J. Chambers, in charge of navy aviation; Capt. W. S. Benson, of the battleship Utah. Commander Adelburt Althouse is judge advocate.

Capt. Quinby will be represented by Attorney Harry K. Wolcott, of Norfolk; Commander Stanford E. Moses, of the battleship Ohio, and Medical Inspector B. P. Crandall, of the receiving ship Franklin.

TRINITY FINALS ARE IMPRESSIVE

Gifts Aggregating Nearly Million and a Half are Announced

SENATOR CUMMINS' ADDRESS

Fifty-seven Graduates Receive Diplomas—Impressive Ceremony of Lowering Flag at Sunset—Grand Reception

(By R. B. Murray).

Durham, N. C., June 4.—Great enthusiasm was displayed at the commencement exercises today when President Few announced the striking success of the recent movement to increase the endowment fund and the equipment of the college.

The total result has been gifts aggregating over $1,420,000. Of this amount $420,000 has been spent for buildings and grounds. The portion of this aggregate which will be income-producing and constitute an addition to the permanent endowment funds of Trinity College is $1,108,000. This handsome new endowment of a Southern College is due in the main to the generosity of Mr. Benjamin N. Duke and Mr. James B. Duke, whose total contribution to the funds recently raised is $1,149,300.

The General Education Board has given $150,000 and the remainder comes from many friends of the college.

The commencement address was delivered today by United States Senator Albert Baird Cummins, of Iowa. Senator Cummins made an eloquent plea for the performance of public duty. He said it was an honor to address the alumni and students of a college from which his foremost colleagues in the Senate graduated. This was the first time he had ever spoke before a North Carolina audience, although his father was a native of this State, and his great grandfather fought here during the revolution and signed the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. Senator Cummins declared he did not come here to tell anyone how to live, for every individual life must work out its own destiny. The college has given graduates equipment for life, but the individual alone must determine the outcome of preparation. No matter what occupation one follows, one duty remains to him still, his duty to his fellow man—public duty unchangeing and omnipresent. Every other duty sinks into insignificance compared to it. He declared the age of experimental government has not passed and never will. When it passes, disintegration of government will take place. There are 24 governments in the world based upon Republican principles, but the United States is the only real republic in the world. The government of Mexico under Diaz or any one else is more absolute than the monarchy of Russia. The government of France has only a few leaders elected by the people at large. A good man with power can rule a nation wisely and justly, but when one hundred million people try to operate the government matters are complicated. The duty of the educated man is to establish the highest ideals, to consolidate the ideas of the masses to secure good government. We have accumulated wealth aggregating over one hundred and twenty-five billion dollars, more by half than any other nation has ever aggregated. This vast wealth brings added responsibility. No other nation has such gigantic problems to face.

Moreover the labor of millions of people produces thirty billion dollars yearly. This vast production must be distributed among earners. He impressed upon the graduates that the great problem of the world in every civilized country, is the distribution of wealth. We have solved to a remarkable degree the problem of production. But the other problem remains. It cannot be solved by Socialism; there are ranks in every phase of life. The genius of American ranks is that they are open to every man and woman who has courage and spirit to enter them. The struggle of the ages is due to competition. Socialism says competition was wasteful and cruel, yet it is necessary. Competition is force in business, society and every phase of life, that strengthens. But some are so strong that they ignore the import of the American constitution. The duty of the college man is to tone down competition and broaden Socialism so as to establish a golden meaning in governmental condition.

MACKMEN'S TENTH STRAIGHT

Defeated Detroit Tigers Again Yesterday—Senators Won From the Browns—White Sox and Naps Also Won.

The Athletics took their 10th consecutive game yesterday, defeating the Detroit Tigers in the second game of the series, count 14 to 6. DuBuc, House and Clauss and Wyckoff and Bush were the opposing twirlers. The Tiger twirlers were hard hit, yielding 16 safeties, while the Athletic pitchers gave up a total of nine hits.

Only a single inning, the lucky seventh, was required for the Washington Senators to put it over the St. Louis Browns in yesterday's contention, the score being 6 to 2. Engel pitched a fine game, allowing just six well scattered hits.

The Chicago Americans made three runs in the first inning of yesterday's tussle with the Red Sox, and Boston being unable to hit Cicotte, the visitors won the second game of the series after Stahl's prophetic utterances of yesterday. Three Sox twirlers were used in an effort to win, but could not tally scores without hits.

The Clevelands, for the past eight days on a tie in the win column with the Athletics, won in unison with the Mackmen again yesterday, taking the second game of the series from Chance's "P. L. Y's." by the score of 9 to 5. Chance now has a total lost column of 32 games to nine won, and is probably approaching the record for low standing.

Won Again, Who?

Philadelphia, June 4.—Philadelphia won its 10th consecutive game today by easily defeating Detroit 14 to 6. After the third inning, changes came fast on both sides. Umpire Ferguson ordered Jennings off the coaching lines in the fourth inning for disputing a decision.

Philadelphia ...705 001 10x—14 16 0

DuBuc, House, Clauss and McKee; Wyckoff, Bush and Lapp and Schang; time 1:48; umpires Dineen and Ferguson.

Now 32nd Degree Loser.

New York, June 4.—Cleveland defeated the local club today 9 to 5. Chance used four pitchers and Cleveland hit them all hard. Blanding was strong with men on bases. In the second Jackson made one of the longest hits ever seen in New York, when he hit a ball over the right field wing of the grand stand.

Cleveland .....011 002 023—9 15 1
New York .....000 020 012—5 12 3

Blanding and O'Neil; Ford, Warhop, McConnell, Clark and Sweeney; time 2:16; umpires Evans and Egan.

Senators Won Another.

Washington, June 4.—It required but one inning today for Washington to defeat St. Louis, the final score being 6 to 2. The locals drove Weilman from the box in the third, scoring five runs on five singles, a double and a triple. Shotten had a perfect at bat, making a single and working Engel for four bases on balls.

St. Louis .....000 000 200—2 6 3
Washington ....005 000 01x—6 10 1

Weilman, Stone and McAllister and Agnew; Engel and Henry; time 2:05; umpires Hildebrand and O'Loughlin.

Red Sox Dropped One.

Boston, June 4.—Chicago made three runs in the first two innings today and as Boston was unable to hit Cicotte in the pinches the visitors won 4 to 1. Three pitchers were used by Boston. Two fast double plays by Cicotte, Weaver and Fournier were timely.

Chicago .....210 000 001—4 9 2
Boston .....001 000 000—1 6 1

VIOLATED WHITE SLAVE LAW

Jack Johnson Fined and Sentenced to Prison

Chicago, June 4.—Jack Johnson, negro heavyweight champion, today was sentenced to one year and one day in the State penitentiary at Joliet, and fined $1,000 for violation of the Mann "white slave" act.

Sentence was pronounced on Johnson after Federal Judge Carpenhad denied a motion for a new trial. Johnson obtained two weeks' time in which to prepare a writ of error, and the bond for $30,000 on which he has been at liberty until his convention was allowed to stand.

Half a dozen deputy marshals who had grouped themselves about Johnson in anticipation of resistance when the prison sentence was given, left the room when Judge Carpenter announced that the fighter would continue temporarily at liberty.

The sentence to the State penitentiary is owing to the crowded condition of the Federal prison at Leavenworth. Johnson left the court room declaring he would not give up his fight for liberty.

Judge Carpenter in passing sentence said:

"The circumstances in this case have been aggravating. The life of the defendant, by his own admissions, has not been a moral one. The defendant is one of the best known men of his race and his example has been far-reaching."

The court denied a request of counsel for Johnson that the negro be allowed to serve the term in the Bridewell city prison instead of the State prison.

Johnson was convicted May 10th of having paid for the transportation of Belle Screiber from Pittsburgh to Chicago.

Chicago, June 4.—John E. Wilkie, former chief of the United States secret service, in Washington, today was elected vice president of the Chicago Railways Company, at a special meeting of the board of directors.

The Brilliant Stars of June

By the end of June, Mars, Venus, Saturn and Jupiter will all be morning stars, but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is at all times the "Star" medicine for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. A cold in June is as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other time, but not if Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is taken. It will surely head off the cold, and heal the inflammed membranes. The genuine in a yellow package.—Robt. R. Bellamy.

MICHAEL MURPHY DEAD.

Most Famous Athletic Trainer Died at Philadelphia Yesterday.

Philadelphia, June 4.—Michael C. Murphy, famous as a developer of athletes, died shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Murphy was born in Natick, Mass., in 1860, and early in life became prominent as a trainer of athletes. He had charge of the American teams at three Olympic meets, the last being the victorious team of last year. Many of the best college athletes in America have been developed by Murphy.

He had charge of the combined teams of the New York Athletic Club and the University of Pennsylvania, which represented America in the Olympic games in Paris in 1900; the American team to the London Olympics in 1908, and the American team to the games in Stockholm in 1912. Murphy was also the trainer of the New York athletic team which defeated the London Athletic Club in a dual track meet in 1895. Murphy became physical director of Yale in 1887 and since then had been considered the greatest coach of track men and trainer of men in other branches of sport that America has ever known. Later he came to the University of Pennsylvania, then went back to Yale, but returned here in 1905 and had been at the University of Pennsylvania ever since. Murphy was classed as the dean of American trainers. He never had a team finish worse than third in the inter-collegiate track competition and for five years straight he won the championship for Pennsylvania.

Before he was 24 years old, he became the trainer of John L. Sullivan. After one year with the great pugilist Murphy conceived the idea of finding a man able to defeat Sullivan. He searched for a year through the wilds of Canada and the lumber camps of the great Northwest, but he failed to find the man.

DR. JAMESON RESIGNS.

President of Mercer University Resigns in Compliance With Request

Macon, Ga., June 4.—Dr. S. Y. Jameson today tendered to the board of trustees his resignation as president of Mercer University ,one of the best known denominational institutions in the South. The prudential committee of the university, with the exception of its constitutional members, also resigned. The resignations were requested in resolutions adopted by the trustees at a meeting held last night.

It is reported the disagreement, which is said to have existed for some time between Dr. Jameson and the trustees was augmented by the president's action in regard to fraternity organizations at the university.

Prof. J. F. Sellers, a member of the faculty of Mercer University, was elected temporary president by the board of trustees.

PHILLIES WON; GIANTS LOST

Dooin's Men Took First Game From the Pirates—Giants Dropped One to Cardinals—Reds Leave Cellar—Braves Lost

The Quakertown Phillies met the Pirates at home for a series beginning yesterday and took over the initial game by bunching hits off Camnitz in the seventh inning for the only scores of the game, four in number. The Phillies by the victory outdistanced their neighbors who are the strongest contenders for top position by one more game, the two nearest teams to the top losing yesterday's battles.

After concluding yesterday's game with St. Louis, McGraw decided that he would postpone his pitching announcement for the first world series game until some later date. The peerless Mathewson started the game and was hit freely throughout six innings, when Wiltse took his place, holding the locals hitless. The Giants were only saved their place at second through the Dodgers dropping their game yesterday.

The Cincinnati Reds left the cellar for the first time since April 17th by winning the second straight game from the Brooklyn Dodgers, who seem to have lost all ambition as pennent chasers.

Daring base-running coupled with bunched hits gave Chicago the second game of the series with the Braves by a shutout score of five to nothing. Overall, for Chicago, was in fine form and pitched air-tight ball.

Alexander Still Winning

Pittsburgh, June 4.—Philadelphia bunched hits off Camnitz in the 7th inning today and won from Pittsburgh 4 to 0. Carey made a wonderful catch when he ran far back in left center and speared Killifer's bid for a home run. He juggled the ball but grabbed it with his bare hand.

St. Louis' 11 hits were all made in the six innings Mathewson pitched. Wiltse was airtight. Griner, though hit hard, kept the hits scattered and was effective in all but the seventh inning.

Cincinnati, June 4.—Cincinnati went into seventh place in the pennant race today by defeatig Brooklyn 4 to 3 and Boston losing to Chicago. This is the first time Cincinnati has been out of last place since April 17th.

Cincinnati hit Curtis hard and had the game won when he was taken out of the box in the fourth inning.

Chicago, June 4.—Daring base-running, coupled with bunched hits today enabled Chicago to shutout Boston, the first of the Eastern teams to invade this city, 5 to 0. Overall was in fine form and allowed the visitors only five scattered hits. Rudolph had three bad innings in all of which the locals scored.

OIL PROPERTY LEASES

Questions Involving Millions to be Decided by Secretary Lane

Washington, June 4.—Secretary Lane, of the Interior Department, today gave a hearing of several hours to all parties interested in oil leases on the Osage Indian reservation in Oklahoma. Two questions, involving many million dollars, are to be determined by the secretary:

First. Whether the leases shall be extended; and, second, if they are extended, on what terms? The Indians now receive a royalty from the operators of one-eighth. The tribal council, all members of which were present at the hearing in full regalia, contended that the royalty ought to be one-sixth.

Paris, June 4.—Fifty delegates of the great European powers and of the Balkan States met today to settle financial questions arising out of the recent war and especially to determine what portion of the Ottoman debt must be taken over by the Balkan allies. The World's Largest Builders of Six-Cylinder Automobiles

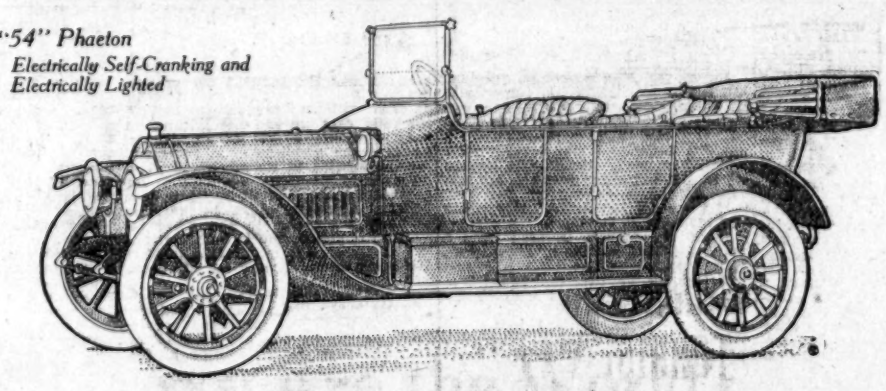
"54" Phaeton
Electrically Self-Cranking and Electrically Lighted



We Are the World's Largest Builders of Sixes

Merit alone makes that position possible. Everyone who knows anything about the development of the automobile industry expected Howard E. Coffin to build a wonderful six. But not even we expected his car to so soon become such a leader in its field.

Other sixes have been on the market longer than the "54" HUDSON, but no other maker is today building so many cars of its type.

The reason for the success of the "54" HUDSON is the cleverness of its design.

No one maker can have an exclusive control of careful building, no one can have a monopoly of good materials. But by combining the skill and experience of 48 expert engineers the guess and experiment usual in automobiles has been eliminated.

In the particulars of engineering skill the "54" HUDSON is distinctive. It combines the improvements that 48 experts working in combination have been able to create—it expresses the experience these men have gained in building more than 200,000 cars of 97 well known makes. In care of workmanship and quality of materials it equals that of any automobile built.

If You are Paying More than $2,000 You Make a Mistake if it is Not a Six

The "54" HUDSON is all that any automobile at any price can be in performance, luxury, comfort and value. Backed by our own service you will find in it as near an approach to ideal motor satisfaction as is known.

The "54" HUDSON is the answer to a question that has long concerned all automobile builders, "What will Howard E. Coffin do when he builds a Six?"

When he built this car he had as his associates, experts from 97 leading American and European factories—48 all told.

Thus all guess work was eliminated—all experiment made unnecessary. With so many viewpoints and so much experience, errors that others had made were eliminated—advancements that others found impossible were easily accomplished.

The "54" HUDSON has electric lights. It is electrically self-cranked. The famous Delco system, patented, is used. Every luxury is included, speedometer, clock, top, curtains, rain-vision windshield, demountable rims, twelve-inch upholstery, etc. Equipped with a five-passenger Phaeton body, $2450.

At $1875 you can obtain the HUDSON "37"—designed by the same engineers that built the "54"—and pointed to as the "Four-cylinder masterpiece."

Annual Report of Agricultural Department — Seaboard Reduces Working Hours — Public Laws About Ready

Raleigh, N. C., June 4.—The semi-annual report of the Commissioner of Agriculture to the State Board of Agriculture was presented today and made a financial exhibit, features of which are a balance of $93,912 June 1st, against which there are outstanding warrants amounting to $5,739; disbursements for the past six months $112,037, the total receipts of the department amounting to $194,119.

The receipts from fertilizer tax amounted to $152,076; from C. S. meal tags, $17,334; from feed stamps, $13,410. The revenue from test farms was $5,827. The oil inspection tax receipts are not included in this report. The oil inspection division shows $32,698 receipts and $2,354 balance in the treasury. The expense of the division for the six months was $9,343 and the sum of $21,000 has been turned into the general State fund in the hands of the State treasurer.

Drainage Aid Held Up

The commissioner reports that owing to the fact that the recent Legislature ordered the board of agriculture to pay $12,500 from the funds of the department on the machine shops building at the A. & M. College it will be necessary to discontinue department aid to drainage districts for the present.

Droughts have made inroads on the stands of corn and cotton in several sections of the State, the report says, but that the preparation of the lands for the present crops has been the best in the history of the State. Prospect is good for wheat, the clover and grass crops are fine, oats are somewhat injured by drought, frosts and storms have seriously damaged the fruit yields so that apples will be only about 40 per cent, pears 15 per cent, peaches 30 per cent and grapes 60 per cent.

There were, the report says, over 500,000 bushels of apples moved by the railroads in this State for North Carolina growers last year. Each of the past four years North Carolina has led the cotton States in the production record of cotton per acre, growing from 267 to 315 pounds of lint cotton to the acre. The State has advanced from 22nd to 15th in the rank of States in agricultural products. The acreage in corn since 1909 has increased 50,000 and the production increased 16,000,000 bushels. The acreage of wheat has increased 104 acres and the yield 2,800,000 bushels; the cotton increase acreage has been 176,000 and 476,000 bales, the advance in all crops being much more largely yield than in acres.

The report sets out that there has been a great advance in farming methods throughout the State due to institute and demonstration work carried on by the Department of Agriculture. And yet not more than half of the farmers have really been awakened to the importance of applying advanced and intensive methods in farming. The report says that the undeveloped adult farmer in the State is her quickest and greatest available asset. The backward farmers can only be reached by personal contact which may be had through the institute meetings. He must not only be told of the accomplishment of others in advanced methods of farming, but he must be induced to undertake such work intelligently for himself.

Immigration Conditions

The report states that in immigration matters the State is attracting attention, especially among homeseekers from the Northwest. The black lands of the East and the apple lands of the West are attracting most attention at this time.

The report shows that the farmers are purchasing fertilizers of much higher grade than they used to, this being shown by the division for analyzing fertilizers.

A big addition to the division for veterinary work is the new hog cholera serum here that has many advantages and will enable the department to supply serum in any quantities required to stamp out any and all outbreaks of cholera among hogs.

Concerning the division of agronomy the commissioner recommends that since Miss Tillman has resigned as botanist that the position of agronomist and botanist be combined at a salary of $2,200 and an assistant be provided at not more than $1,400. The botanical work of the division has chiefly to do with the seeds offered for sale in the State. The agronomist who will also be botanist if the recommendation goes through is J. L. Burgess.

The report recommends that a separate division for soil survey and soil maps be created to hasten the survey of the entire State. As at the present rate twenty more years will be required to complete the survey of the State. He recommends employment of N. A. Coffey, of Ohio, at $3,000 per year as chief of the soil survey division.

Notice is posted on the Seaboard Air Line shops here that until further notice there will be only 40 hours' work per week here. The order becomes effective Monday. Heretofore there have been 54 hours 'work to the week.

During May there were building permits issued for Raleigh aggregating $55,797. In May, 1912, there were permits amounting to $24,675 building investments.

The new city commission will very soon take up the matter of the sale of the present city market on Fayetteville street, one of the landmarks of the city. The commission has power to sell for not less than $60,000 and either abolish the market entirely or establish one or more markets elsewhere. It is expected that a big office building will take the place of the present market building.

Raleigh's fine abattoir is to be completed by July 1st. There was a report that the city commission was planning to lease it to a syndicate of butchers, but this is positively denied by the commissioners.

The Raleigh city commission finds that it has inherited a $75,000 floating debt from the old aldermanic government that no one seems to have known anything about.

The Nurses' Training School in connection with Rex Hospital has just issued its first diplomas to graduates. There were nine in the class. The graduation address was delivered by Dr. B. K. Hayes, of Oxford.

A new railroad line is being surveyed from McBee, S. C., to Monroe, a distance of 43 miles, with Mr. William Moncure, of this city, as the engineer in charge. It is expected that the road will be called the South Carolina & Western.

The Public Laws of 1913, enacted by the recent Legislature, are coming from the State printers and will be distributed by the Secretary of State as rapidly as possible. Only a few are yet bound, but they will be bound and delivered to the Secretary of State rapidly now. The Private Laws, a separate volume, are not yet ready for the bindery. The Public Laws make a volume of 496 pages.

NOTABLE GATHERING OF SCOTS

Clan McQueen Enjoys Delightful Ceremony at Maxton—Addresses, Music, Reception and Other Interesting Features

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., June 4.—Last night, with the Hon. A. J. McKinnon as master of ceremonies, took place the reception to the McQueen Clan Association, in the auditorium of Carolina College.

After prayer offered by Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., and the singing of Auld Lang Syne, the Rev. Wm. Black, of Charlotte, N. C., stated the inception of the idea to collect together all or as many as possible of the descendants of Col. James McQueen, whose old home was Queensdale of this county.

Earlier in the year several of his descendants met at the home of Hon. A. J. McKinnon and formed a temporary association with committees with the power to act and decided to perfect the organization at a meeting called for June 3rd and 4th. At this meeting the following were elected as temporary officers: Mr. H. C. McQueen, of Wilmington, N. C., chief; Mr. Edmund McQueen, of Dunbar, S. C., honorary chief; Hon. A. J. McKinnon, of Maxton, N. C., chieftain; Mr. E. L. Moore, of Dillon, S. C.; chieftain; J. Wm. McQueen, of Birmingham, Ala., chieftain; Hon. A. W. McLean, of Lumberton, N. C., chieftain; Rev. Wm. Black, of Charlotte, N. C., chieftain; Hon. John McQueen, of Birmingham, Ala., chieftain; Rev. Stewart McQueen, of Montgomery, Ala., chieftain; Mrs. Bella McElyea, "Aunt Becky," of Maxton, historian; Miss Sallie Lou McKinnon, of Maxton, enrolling secretary; Misses Katie McLean, of Laurinburg, and Agnes McLean, of Lumberton, keepers of records and seal; Rev. A. R. McQueen, of Dunn, N. C., chaplain; Mr. Roy Martin, of Maxton, treasurer; J. Plummer Wiggins, of Maxton, secretary.

These temporary officers were on the stage and were introduced to the members of the clan by Rev. Wm. Black.

The master of ceremonies then introduced Hon. G. B. Patterson, who delivered the address of welcome on the part of the citizens of the town, extending a most hearty welcome to the clan and requesting that it hold an annual reunion here. This was followed by the address of welcome on the part of the home clansmen and was delivered by Mr. S. B. McLean, a member of the local bar. The response was delivered by Mr. H. C. McQueen, of Wilmington, N. C., who paid a glowing tribute to the ancestors of the Clan, Robert Bruce, Flora McDonald and Col. James McQueen.

These talks were followed by a vocal solo, "Wearyin' Awa', Jean, sung by Miss Minnie Lou McRae, who was accompanied on the piano by her sister, Mrs. R. M. Williams.

Mr. Wade Harris, editor of the Charlotte Observer, was then presented to the clan as one who, though not a clansman, had done much to make of this reunion a success.

Mr. Kenneth McLean, a native of Edinburg, Scotland, together with his bagpipe was introduced and the weird strains that had cheered many a hero to deeds of valor sounded and resounded in the auditorium.

While refreshments were served by the younger misses of the town the toast "Our Scotch Kinsfolk," was responded to by Mr. J. Wm. McQueen, of Birmingham; "Our Scotch Lassies," by Rev. Stewart McQueen, of Montgomery, Ala.; "Our Hosts," by Hon. John McQueen, of Birmingham; "Our Guests," by Hon. A. J. McKinnon; "All of Us," by Rev. Wm. Black, of Charlotte, N. C.

With a word of prayer from the chaplain, Rev. A. R. McQueen, of Dunn, N. C., the audience was dismissed.

Four great pictures will be offered at the Grand Theatre today and on the programme will be found something to please each and every patron. The bill includes a big double Pathe feature, "The Great Centipede" and "How Briar Pipes Are Made." Each of these pictures is highly educational and will be entertaining as well as instructive. "Playing With Fire" will be another big feature. It is a Vitagraph and tells of the attentions of a young artist to a young married woman and the retribution that is swiftly visited upon him. In addition there will be a comedy offering that will be sure to please. These pictures, good music and a perfectly delightful and well ventilated house should attract large crowds to the Grand today.

At The Bijou

In honor of the Elks the Bijou will present something extra good today, and as the Bijou always offers something fine, it will be clearly understood that something whopping big may be expected. The Bijou has entered with zest into the spirit of the occasion and will offer a programme today that will be of gala character and that will immensely please all. There will be four films featuring the show—four superb ones, of latest type and most expensive make. There will be both dramatic and comedy photoplays and then there will be plenty of new music, plus the Bijou Theatre's usual solid comforts, and all for the small price of 5 cents.

"The Spirit of the Nugget," Kalem's most masterly effort, will head the show and it will be stirring dramatic of the West; of gold fever days and of Indians.

Running this great film a hot second will be Lubin's "The Scimitar of the Prophet," which is a story most fascinating and weird and will hold the close attention of all beholders. It is a story of Egypt and of the daring act of a curio fiend, who steals a scimitar and is pursued by the followers of a Mohammedan priest. It is a fiery film that will quicken the blood.

"An Adventure in the Autumn" is a Biograph on today and will prove particularly attractive, while furnishing plenty of variety.

Then will come one of the greatest laugh-films ever produced, "The Indestructible Mr. Jenks," and it is a ha, ha from start to finish. Jenks soaks himself in a certain liquid that makes him indestructible and his adventures, as different accidents occur, are highly ludicrous.

STRANGE POWERS

I was born with a remarkable power—a power not meant to gratify the idle curious, but to direct, advise and help those who are in trouble and suspense concerning the every day affairs of life.

MY WORK SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

While I have the endorsements of thousands of the most noted men and women of America, I deem them of little value, since I stand alone upon the merits of my work. Any person who can believe their own eyes and ears cannot help but know that my work is of the highest order of genuine clairvoyance.

If you have trouble or difficulties of any kind, come to me and have a quiet chat, confidentially. I will tell you what can be done. I assist you in all walks of life. Dont be despondent, worry or feel bad when you only have to call.

Now, as a business adviser, I stand pre-eminent. I will tell you more about your own business than you know yourself. If you are not doing well, and want to do better, call.

If, at the end of the year, you are no better off than when it started, there is a cause for that. You don't want to trouble yourself in old age, and did not save anything, or could not. See me now, to prevent that horrible poverty.

You don't want to be single. Happy marriage and a pleasant home is what you want. I arrange that for you speedily.

Have you domestic difficulties? Is your wife, husband or sweetheart untrue? Do others share the love that rightfully belongs to you? If so, don't hesitate. Call quick, before too late.

Are you seeking separation, divorce, or have you other legal troubles, or want to get advice on the subject? I am the person to consult.

If you speculate or invest, I can lead you to prosperity.

Have you bad luck or an evil influence over you? I remove that at once.

I advise you as to your future welfare, tell you what to do and what not to do. Many of my clients have gained fame and wealth through my guidance.

Satisfaction is positively guaranteed. No fee accepted in advance. If you are not satisfied, no fee is accepted. Is not that honest? Could anything be more fair? A pleased patron brings his friends. My motto is I must satisfy you first.

REDUCED FEE FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY.

I give just as careful and complete a revelation of your business, love and domestic affairs for 50c as I do for my regular fee of $3 and $5. I am taking the reduced fee plan to introduce myself and my work more extensively to the people of this city, where I have established my permanent home.

THE STAR

WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

Thursday, June 5, 1913.

Save your money for a Fourth of July trip to Wilmington.

Some men cut very little ice here and won't have a chance to cut any in the future state.

An optimist is a man who is satisfied if one out of a hundred of his pipe dreams comes true.

In theory the civil service is a beauty. In practice it is the open door to hypocrisy and the avenue to fraud.

To say that Col. Roosevelt's 6 cents verdict represented the full extent of his damages might bring on another suit.

The man who will stand in line for two hours to get a ticket to an amateur performance has a daughter in the caste.

A New York woman who tried to get into society and failed is down on society. That's the way a great many men get down on politics.

None of the college graduates seemed to have had a graduating essay on the economics involved in the altitudinous cost of living.

The Colonel's willingness to take six cents and let it go at that shows that he did not want to put a handicap on the freedom of the press.

If the Progressives get as grouchy as the Populists did 18 or 20 years ago, it will take the G. O. P. about 12 years to get them in a notion to fuse.

Hello Bill! Since every Elk is a mile high, if the "boys" see anything they want they are at liberty to reach up and take the pick of everything in Wilmington.

"Down Tammany" is the cry of the New York Press between election times. They seem to down Tammany right along, but Tammany refuses to be digested and is always able to come back.

A new dance from Paris is being introduced in the United States. Gaby Deslys dances it, but as we can't cut up like Gaby we refuse to exemplify anything new in "the poetry of motion." Let Gaby have it.

The late and also lamented Mrs. Carrie Nation used to want to break into the White House cellar when Roosevelt was President. She went around saying things that would have cost her six cents if she had been haled to court.

It costs $1,500,000 to build a second class cruiser of 5,600 tons displacement. If you want to build six or eight so you can have a little fleet of your own, you can get the plans from those who have been stealing them from about all the naval powers of the world.

A real friend sticks to you through thick and thin. He tells you to cut out your faults, but he doesn't propose to cut you out. A boy, being asked to define a friend, sized it up about right when he replied: "He's a fellow who knows all about you but likes you just the same."

"Rector's", the famous restaurant and hotel on New York's "Great White Way," has gone into bankruptcy. The assets are $50,000 and the liabilities $400,000. "The Girl from Rector's" won't be from there any more. She will be from some place where the assets are $400,000 and the liabilities 30 cents.

Sometimes it costs a young fellow a dollar for his girl to dress. He hires a chug wagon for $3 an hour, and if the girl makes him wait 20 minutes while she is completing the finishing touches to her toilette, she consumes one-third the time he is paying for the machine. Why not be the girl that's always ready?

Our idea of being proof against the seductions of the lobby was illustrated by the old fashioned Senator and Representative who resisted to the last all efforts to persuade him to get rich quick by taking stock in syndicates that were capitalized to get government lands, Indian lands, oil lands, coal lands and Panama canal shares.

A lobbyist is a fellow who is paid to try to convince a Congressman that he ought to vote the way the lobbyist wants him to vote. Sometimes the lobbyist may be right but at other times he may be insidious, insinuative, and remunerative in his methods. A Congressman who permits himself to be "retained" is an easy guy who is put down on the bargain list of a professional lobbyist.

The American Indian was the first anti-alienist. He wanted to scalp prospectors, homeseekers, newcomers and settlers who were invading his hunting grounds with new standards of living and other kinds of foolishness, including the idea of working for a living. Owing to where the Indian is now, he was right as he saw it for his race. The white man is now doing business at the old Indian stand.

The Progressive Legislature of California created 28 commissions, and made places for several hundred good Progressives. "To the victors belong the spoils" is no theory with even a party that stands right on the jumping off place at Armageddon. The desire to live at the public expense is so inherent in Americans that 'steen million funerals would not destroy an ingrowing habit of 139 years' duration.

A SOUTHERN FARMER'S THRIFT.

The most potent resource of America is its agriculture and the chief hope of the Nation's future is the possibility of its productive resources. In the South there is a greater diversity of soil and climate, and hence a greater diversity of agricultural adaptabilities and opportunities, than can be found in any other portion of the country. We can grow more farm products than any other portion of the country. We can grow more varieties of fruits than any other portion of the country.

We can raise about all the crops any other part of the country can raise, but the great agricultural potentiality of the South is that it can produce several ready cash crops that other sections cannot produce. In cotton, tobacco and peanuts the South has three great money crops for which there is a ready demand in every portion of the world. While the South possesses all this versatility of production and its adaptability for agriculture are greater than that of any other portion of the country, we diversify our agriculture less than any other section. However, with all our advantages as an agricultural region, we should lead the world in the diversity of farm products.

More attention than ever is being paid to agriculture in the United States. While we are "giving" our attention to the South's agriculture, the whole world is "paying" attention to it. The world's chief interest in the South's agriculture is on account of its billion dollar cotton crop, and that makes the East and the West and the Orient sit up and take notice. So interested has become the world in agriculture in general and the South's agriculture in particular, that the great metropolitan papers are discussing agricultural topics just like The Star has been doing for years. It is a favorite topic in every paper in the land, just as it ought to be, for the reason that it is taking notice of the greatest of American resources

When the exchanges meet in America or Europe they talk cotton and the South. The wires tell them of the frosts, the rains, the cold winds, the floods, the boll weevil, the red spider, the condition and the prospects. Unfavorable news from the cotton fields of the South causes more apprehension at home and abroad than the news concerning the world's general crops. There are some crops that are peculiar to all portions of the world but cotton production is limited to certain areas, hence the world keeps its eye on the cotton crop of the South, where two-thirds of the world's cotton supply is produced.

However, we started out to say that the exchanges, the banks, the business men and the financiers of the world are taking more interest in agriculture than ever. The circulars of the great banks of New York refer to it and the best of it is these financial circulars are agricultural propagandists. They are even exploiting, promoting and encouraging agriculture. It is a little remarkable that the New York Times should find in a bank "circular" the topic for an editorial on agricultural development in the South. The "circular" of the National City Bank, of New York, America's greatest financial institution, issued a few days ago, contains an account of a farmers' meeting in Mississippi, at which a member testified that in 1907 he owed $900 on his 160-acre farm, and on which he had two ponies, sowe old fashioned plows and a wagon. The circular quotes the farmer as adding this to his condition: "The merchants of my town would not credit me for five cents, because they thought it impossible for me to make a living for my family and seven children, and pay my debts." Referring to the bank circular and commenting upon it, the New York Times thus tells the balance of the story:

"But the 'demonstration work' begun by the late Dr. S. A. Knapp of the Department of Agriculture reached this farmer; Dr. Knapp's local agent urged him to cultivate one acre of cotton under the government's instruction. He was asked to break the land eight inches deep. To do this he had to borrow a team from his neighbors, and the full bale of cotton which he gathered from that one acre—he had previously cultivated 12 acres with a combined yield never over three bales—opened his eyes. He produced six bales of cotton on the 12 acres in 1908, nine bales in 1909, and he is now in a way to grow two bales of cotton for every acre that he cultivates. His financial status has, of course changed: 'Merchants now run after me to sell me goods. I have paid the debt on my place, have four fine mules, and the future looks bright. I have one son and one daughter in college this year, and believe that I am going to be able to give all my children a college education.'

"At the close of the farmer's talk a merchant arose and said that, whereas in 1907 he would not have credited this man 'for a plug of tobacco', he would now give him credit 'for $500 any time that he wants it.' The fact that practically all the Southern States are co-operating in this demonstration work, and that they are reaching many thousands of farmers like the one who recited his experience, seems significant, in the opinion of this very influential bank."

Nothing else need be said to impress the value of scientific agriculture and to emphasize the incalculable value of the work of such men as the late Dr. Knapp. Neither is it necessary to magnify the importance of the attention which the metropolitan banks and newspapers are giving to the unrivalled agricultural possibilities of the South.

THE GULF PORTS MOVING

The Gulf ports are not waiting for the Panama canal to open. That great enterprise has served the purpose of awakening them to their opportunities for commerce with the eastern coast of South America, so they have gone to work to develop that commerce.

"Shipping Illustrated" chronicles the fact that the steamship "Euclid," of the Lamport and Holt line, the first steamer of the new service from New Orleans to the Platte river, sailed May 20th with a full cargo. Note these commodities mentioned in the cargo list: 33,546 sacks of rice, 1,990 barrels of cottonseed oil, 59 hogsheads and three boxes of tobacco, 9,625 barrel shooks, 9,786 pieces of oak lumber, and 1,000 barrels of rosin. That list of articles indicates a few of the commodities which we can ship to South America. With the exception of rice, every one of those export commodities is produce in Wilmington and in North Carolina. This indicates to us some of the few export articles which we can concentrate at Wilmington and Southport to be picked up by ships sailing for South America.

However, let us go on with the New Orleans story. Another steamship company soon will begin to run steamships once a month from New Orleans to South America. This line is to be established by Messrs. Moulder, Weir and Boyd, of New York, and it is to be known as the Pan-American Argentine Line. The first vessel to leave New Orleans is the steamship "Drumcliff," which sails June 30th, to be followed in 30 days by the steamship "Suruga." Thereafter the sailings of this line will be monthly.

Besides the two lines mentioned above, the Eden-Dempster Line will run steamers to South America. This will make three direct lines for New Orleans, and thus it can be seen that the Louisiana port is making a strong bid for South American business. It is said all danger of a rate war has been averted by an agreement among the lines in the service from New York.

It is significant that all this steamship activity at New Orleans involves New York shipping firms. New York is America's greatest maratime center and the steamships of the various lines to run out of there via the Panama canal or to South America and the Orient will pass just off Southport and Wilmington.

We should not forget to state that owing to the activity of New Orleans, the Postoffice Department has decided to dispatch a large section of the mail from the west coast of Central and South America via New Orleans instead of via New York, as has heretofore been the custom. The new route for these mails, says "Illustrated Shipping," will mean the saving of a week's time as compared with the New York route.

What New Orleans is going to be as the great port of the Gulf and Mississippi Valley country, Wilmington and Southport should be for the South Atlantic.

DEATH OF DR. KINGSBURY

The Star chronicles with pain the death of the venerable Dr. Theodore B. Kingsbury, who for so many years was editor of The Star and later served in that capacity on the Wilmington Messenger for a long period during its existence. Elsewhere in this morning's Star appears an account of the death of that distinguished newspaper man, together with a sketch of his long and able newspaper service in Raleigh, Wilmington and other places in the State.

For fifteen years we had the honor of being in newspaper service with Dr. Kingsbury and we can say that in all our experience we have never known a more courtly, courteous and uniformly agreeable associate. He was a man of dignified personality and was guided by firmly fixed convictions upon all the questions he discussed from day to day. He was alert and full of energy as a writer, and everywhere he was regarded as one of the State's most vigorous and brilliant editors.

Dr. Kingsbury wrote twenty years ahead of his day. Recalling his editorials many years ago, he then expressed the progressive political views of today. He was a great student of Jefferson and Madison, those patriarchs of Democracy whose views became the guide of his political convictions. He was literary in his taste, and probably no man in the State was a greater authority on the biography of the eminent North Carolinians and statesmen of the ante-bellum and subsequent periods of the history of the State.

In the death of Dr. Kingsbury, there passes one of North Carolina's most eminent editors of the past. He was the State's oldest editor and though in retirement for probably a dozen years, he kept in close touch with the journalism of the State. He had a vast store of information and his great versatility as a writer enabled him to do his work with marvelous ease. He loved the work, and his long years of brilliant service and earnest work is a monument to his genius and career as an editor.

Personally, we grieve to record Dr. Kingsbury's death, and to his bereaved family The Star extends its condolence.

ELKS HERDING IN WILMINGTON.

With the North Carolina Masons leaving Wilmington, after having held their annual grand meetings here on Tuesday and Wednesday, today and tomorrow will witness the herding in this city of the Grand Lodge Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, of North Carolina. For the departure of the Masons we will be consoled by the coming of the "jolly good fellows" who compose the order of Elks. We rejoice, therefore, that Wilmington will have them in her midst for the next two days.

A royal welcome has been stored up for the Elks and it will be on tap today and tomorrow. All Elks are "a mile high" in Wilmington's estimation, and, as a matter of course, the keys and night latch of the city will be promptly turned over to them during their stay. If they will obey the rule at the "Hour of Eleven", Wilmington is theirs. It is understood that they will bring with them quite a number of Elkalinas, and certainly that clinches the extremely cordial welcome which all Wilmington will extend to the visitors.

CURRENT COMMENT.

It makes no difference what is done for the good of a community; there will always be some that will kick worse than a cheap tourist at a country hotel.—Staunton (Va.) Leader.

Wilson and Wilson county is proud of the Hackney Wagon Factory—the biggest wagon factory in the South. The employes live here and spend their wages here. Do Wilson people realize that the Hackney Wagon Factory is fighting against unjust freight rates? The big wagon factories of South Bend can deliver their product in North Carolina for less freight charge than the Wilson factory can deliver to the same point.—Wilson Times.

"Drank up the evidence," is the headline in the Wilmington Star of the day and while the evidence in this case happened to be a small quantity of whiskey from the Recorder's court room, the evidence of Wilmington's taking to drink, is a solid express car almost daily from the Virginia points that is shifted here for the local train for Wilmington. It's getting to be a real fact that Wilmington is rivaling the best of them in the matter of its purchases of the fiery fluid from the Virginia cities and if it may keep up the present clip the leather medal for consumption for medical purposes must be tendered to Wilmington.—Rocky Mount Telegram.

Wilson is waging a merry fight on the freight rate matter at this time and they are presenting some mighty appealing argument in the matter of the wagon firms of South Bend, Ind., delivering wagons in Wilmington cheaper than it is possible for the Hackney Wagon Co., located at Wilson, to deliver the same wagon at the North Carolina town. In closing its appeal to the Wilson citizens to attend the mass meeting the Wilson Times declares: "It's a poor citizen that will not fight hard for his home." Wilson is everlastingly right on this matter and it's with pleasure that the agitation over the State is noted. If every town in the State might investigate the freight rates they are paying and compare them with their friends in Virginia, the alarm that would be sounded and the cry that would go up would surpass anything of its kind in recent years, and the Apachee Indians on the warpath wouldn't be a circumstance.—Rocky Mount Telegram.

COLUMBUS COUNTY NEWS.

Auditor is Named—New Court House. Davis Birthday Celebration.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., June 4.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance of Columbus county, Mr. C. W. Brown was appointed clerk to the board, to do such work as would be done by a county auditor. In other words, this position will be that of general bookkeeper for the county. At the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday Mr. Brown was also appointed purchasing agent for the county, which will have the effect of centralizing the buying of the county and will effect quite an economy.

Mr. Albert H. Marsh, consulting accountant of Augusta, Ga., is here to install a complete new system of accounts for the county in connection with Mr. Brown's appointment. Mr. Marsh recently did similar work for New Hanover county. This system when completed will be equal to any in the State.

Both the Board of Audit and Finance and the Board of County Commissioners are progressive business men and are determined that the affairs of the county shall hereafter be handled with the same business acumen and probity as can be found in any community.

Mr. J. F. Leitner, architect, has been instructed to complete his plans for the new court house and to advertise for sealed bids in order to ascertain just what the work will cost. If the bids do not exceed a reasonable cost some plans for raising the necessary funds will probably be made at the commissioners' meeting the first Monday in July.

The special term of court ordered several weeks ago for this county is now in session. Judge G. S. Ferguson is presiding. Quite a number of cases, none of particular interest, are being tried.

Jackson Ward was brought here yesterday by three special deputies and is lodged in the county jail. He was wanted for shooting and seriously injuring one of his kinsmen, Luther Ward. The shooting was a result of a fight which occurred between these men Sunday evening about six miles below here.

A delegation of about 20 of the members of Columbus Lodge I. O. O. F. No. 27, of this place has just organized and instituted Boardman Lodge, I. O. O. F. No. 378, at Boardman, N. C. The new body is composed of some of the best people of Boardman and promises to be a strong and active organization.

Fifty old soldiers from all over the county gathered here Tuesday for the celebration of Jefferson Davis' birthday. The celebration was given by the Jefferson Davis Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and was a thorough success from start to finish. The exercises were beautifully gone through with and the old style picnic dinner was the best that had been spread before the old veterans in a long time. Rev. J. H. Poteet, pastor of the Baptist church here, delivered the address.

Blood Bath Knocks Rheumatism

Remarkable Effect of a Remedy That Actually Irrigates the Entire Blood Supply.

The Hardest Nut of All, Rheumatism, is Cracked by S. S. S.

It sounds queer to take a blood bath but that is precisely the effect of a most remarkable remedy known as S. S. S. It has the peculiar action of soaking through the intestines directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the one end of casting out every irritating, every pain-inflicting atom of poison; it dislodges by irrigation all accumulations in the joints, causes acid accretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.

And best of all, this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach. If you have drugged yourself until your stomach is nearly paralyzed, you will be astonished to find that S. S. S. gives no sensation but goes right to work. This is because it is a pure vegetable infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs.

You can get S. S. S. at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle. It is a standard remedy, recognized everywhere as the greatest blood antidote ever discovered. If yours is a peculiar case and you desire expert advice, write to The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg. Atlanta, Ga.

FLAT RATE FALLS FLAT

Proposition of Councilman Wood Does Not Seem to Appeal to Other Members of Body—Other Recommendations

Councilman Wood's flat rate proposition fell flat in the regular meeting of the City Council yesterday morning; that is, his plan to do away with meters in the water department for the residential section and return to the old flat rate system met with not a sign of favor from his colleagues on the Councilmanic body.

On the other hand, decided opposition developed, being led by Councilman Merritt, who went to the meeting armed with letters from the superintendents of waterworks in Atlanta and Savannah and with textbooks, from which he quoted.

Councilman Wood proposed a resolution authorizing the city clerk and treasurer and himself to figure out a scale of prices on a flat rate basis and report at a subsequent meeting. The Council would not even agree to this, but sat down on the entire proposition. Councilman Wood served notice that he would bring the proposition up again at future meetings. He also announced that he would call on Council to purchase about 1,500 meters at $12.30 a piece, saying that if the meters are to continue to be used in Wilmington they must be used by everybody, while at present not more than half the consumers are on the meter rate.

The objection of Councilmen Merritt and Chadwick was mainly on the ground that the city cannot afford at this time to lose the revenue from the water department. They also objected because they thought the meters the fairest way for all.

Councilman Wood said that the collections for water and sewerage rents would be made hereafter through the office of the tax collector. Councilmen Merritt and Chadwick said this was news to them. Councilman Wood replied by saying that one clerk had been dropped in the water and sewerage department with the idea that the collections were to be made through the tax collecting department. It was agreed that Councilmen Wood and Chadwick have a conference with a view of arranging some plan for receiving the rents through the tax collector's office. The idea probably would be to give him a clerk for this work.

The letter received by Councilman Merritt from Mr. W. Z. Smith, general manager of the Atlanta waterworks, stated that Atlanta is and has been for many years on meter rate exclusively. The city would not think of returning to the flat rate. The superintendent of the Savannah waterworks, Mr. J. P. Figg, stated that only about 2 per cent of the consumers in Savannah are on the meter rate. However, he believed the fairest and most equitable way of handling the matter was on a meter rate. Councilman Merritt read from a textbook that in cities where there were less than 10 per cent on meters the average family used 153 gallons of water a day; where there were 10 to 25 per cent meters, 110 gallons; 25 to 50 per cent, 104 gallons; more than 50 per cent, 62 gallons. He used this to show that much water was wasted when on the flat rate.

Councilman Wood suggested that the Council invite the Southern Power Company to enter this city with electric current. He thought they would come if invited and was satisfied that should the company enter the local field that a number of new manufacturing enterprises, which could be operated by electric power, would spring up. No action was taken.

Councilman Wood expressed the hope that before the end of another year a dynamo would be installed at the waterworks plant and that the street lighting be done by the city, saying that this would save the municipality about $12,000 a year. Councilman Merritt said he was with his colleague on this proposition, but no action was taken.

Councilman Wood inquired if the Tidewater Power Company had acknowledged the receipt of the bill for about $2,700 which the Council claims is due on street paving, and receiving an answer in the negative made a motion to the effect that the city attorney be given the account. The motion prevailed.

Councilman Wood recommended that the A. C. L. be asked to put in a spur track to the city property in the northern part of the city, saying that the city was paying the Tidewater Power Co., to switch cars there when it could be done for nothing if the spur track was put in. No action was taken.

No action was taken on Councilman Wood's proposition as to distillation of water for the public water supply. The proposition will likely be considered more in detail at a later meeting as the present Council will endeavor to obtain the water supply from some source other than the Cape Fear river.

MANY WITNESSES INTRODUCED

South Carolina Legislator Being Tried on Murder Charge

Aiken, S. C., June 4.—Witnesses for Hugh Long, Representative from Aiken county, in the South Carolina Legislature, who is on trial here charged with the murder of Pickens N. Gunter, a banker at Wagener last Fall, testified today that during the campaign Gunter had threatened the life of Long, if the latter were elected to the Legislature.

The defense also introduced witnesses who testified that during the political campaign last Summer, Gunter followed Long over the county and on one occasion attempted to gather a crowd to interrupt Long when he should make his speech.

Physicians who examined Long after he was brought to the Aiken county jail, following the killing of Gunter, testified that Long bore severe wounds on the head and throat. Dr. W. P. Houston, of Monroe, N. C., a brother of Secretary of Agriculture Houston, and several other citizens of North Carolina, testified that Long had borne a good reputation for peace and order in his home county.

Attorneys for Long announced tonight that Long will tomorrow morning take the stand and relate the circumstances surrounding the killing of Gunter. It is regarded as unlikely, however, that the case will go to the jury before the end of the week.

This afternoon W. V. Jones, who acted as mayor of Wagener during Long's absence, testified that threats made by Gunter and others caused him to employ special policemen to preserve the peace. This witness also said that he advised Long by letter not to return to Wagener.

Doctor Tells How to Shed Bad Complexion

We cannot restore a degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a lost limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the devitalized cuticle. Not by surgical means, however, as the underlying cutis is too thin, too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Applying ordinary mercolized wax will gradually absorb the offending cuticle. By degrees, a new, youthful skin appears; a skin soft and delicately tinted as a rose petal.

No lady need hesitate to try this. Procure an ounce of mercolized wax of the druggist. Spread a thin layer before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In from one to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed.

An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution brings prompt and remarkable results.—Dr. Rupert Mackenzie in Popular Medicine.

CLOSE OF FINE MEETING

Daughters and Sons Meet Next Year in Rockingham — Officers Re-elected—Will Build Chapel at Training School

The closing session of the North Carolina convention of King's Daughters and Sons was held last night at the First Baptist church. At the morning session yesterday officers for the coming year were elected, and at noon the Daughters were entertained at luncheon at the Elks' Temple following which they went to Wrightsville Beach for an outing as guests of the Tidewater Power Company. Rockingham was selected as the place for the next meeting.

The officers elected for the new year are: President, Mrs. W. H. S. Burgwyn, Raleigh; vice president, Miss Easdale Shaw, Rockingham; recording secretary, Mrs. Richard Williams, Greenville; treasurer, Mrs. D. Y. Cooper, Hendersonville; Central Council member, Mrs. C. J. Kelloway, Wilmington; Silver Cross secretary, Mrs. John S. Hassel, Greenville. Executive committee: Miss Jean Coltrane, Concord; Mrs. G. A. Coggeshall, Oxford; Mrs. George A. Rose, Henderson; Mrs. D. F. Cannon, Salisbury; Mrs. Walter L. Parsley, Wilmington.

The devotional exercises yesterday morning were conducted by Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells and Rev. J. D. Bundy, after which a fine vocal duet was sung by Mrs. M. H. Longfellow and Mrs. Frank A. Muse. Mrs. M. L. Stover, of this city, made a most interesting address before the convention her subject being, "Woman's Place in Club Life." She showed how the old idea of a woman's club as a place where abnormal women discuss abstruse subjects had been changed, and that today they are busy with the work of organizing the forces of the community for humanitarian and charitable purposes. She declared that the purpose of the woman's club is not to secure equal suffrage for both sexes but to help along social, civic and educational life. In this State the Woman's Federation has recently taken a prominent part in securing the enactment of six months' school law and of child law legislation.

Mrs. C. J. Kelloway, who recently returned from New York, where she attended a meeting of the Central Council as a representative of the State convention, read a report of the proceedings of the council. There were 15 States represented at the meeting and many matters of interest to the Daughters were taken up. During the year there were organized in the United States 136 new circles. One of the problems pressing for solution is the circulation of the Silver Cross magazine, the National organ, which has only about 4,000 subscribers.

A memorial paper of the late Col. Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn, a loyal son of the order, who died in January, 1913, was read by Mrs. D. Y. Cooper.

The matter of building a chapel at the Stonewall Jackson Training School was taken up, the Daughters pledging themselves to contribute yearly to this fund until enough is secured to pay for the building. It is expected that work will begin on it at an early date, and its estimated cost is $2,500. By a rising vote a resolution was adopted naming it the Margaret Burgwyn chapel in honor of the honored State president. A resolution was also adopted asking the management of the school to see that the boys receive specific religious training.

After electing officers for the new year and selecting a place for the next meeting the session then adjourned to go to the Elks' Temple where an elaborate luncheon was served. In the afternoon a number of the delegates and local members went to Wrightsville Beach as guests of the Tidewater Power Company, returning to the city about 5 o'clock after a most enjoyable outing.

The Luncheon

The luncheon given by the Elks to the delegates to the State convention of the King's Daughters and Sons was attended by about 80 people, and the event proved to be one of the most pleasant features of the convention. An elegant menu was served and there was music by the Boston Italian Orchestra, V. Cammariero, director, together with music by ladies and gentlemen of the city.

The committee in charge of the affair was Mr. B. P. Strickland, Exalted Ruler of the Elks; Mr. J. F. Leitner, chairman; and Messrs. H. E. Longley, C. W. Polvogt, J. O. Reilly, C. H. Causey, of the Suffolk lodge, and H. G. Dill. The ladies' dining room was very prettily decorated with asparagus ferns, popies, roses and other floral arrangements, together with the Elk colors, which are purple and white, the colors of the King's Daughters also.

The menu was sandwiches, chicken salad, lemonade, ice cream and cake.

The musical programme included a mixed quartette—Mrs. W. H. Longfellow, soprano; Mrs. F. A. Muse, alto; Mr. W. Southerland, tenor, and Mr. F. P. Harrell, bass; a ladies' quartette—Mrs. Longfellow, soprano; Mrs. J. D. Edwards, second soprano; Mrs. J. D. Smith, alto, and Mrs. F. A. Muse, second alto; a mixed quartette: "When Evening Twilight," Hatton; "Sleep, Gentle Lady," Bishop; ladies' quartette: "Welcome Pretty Primrose," Pinsuti; "There's One That I Love Dearly," Hawley. The accompanists were Mrs. W. C. Munds and Mr. T. Stanley France.

Leaving the luncheon, the ladies who enjoyed it expressed their very enthusiastic appreciation of the courtesy of the Elks and offered very flattering comments on the manner in which they had been entertained.

Closing Session

The last meeting of the convention was held last night in the First Baptist church. A special musical programme had been prepared for the occasion which was much enjoyed. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. S. Crowley. A splendid address was made by Mr. J. J. Blair, of this city, who emphasized the importance of training wayward boys. Mr. J. P. Whyte spoke on "Woman's Work." He stated that the greatest work of all is conserving the lives of boys and girls. Resolutions were adopted thanking the people of Wilmington for their hospitality. An offering was taken for the Stonewall Jackson school. With the singing of the doxology the session was formally adjourned by Miss Shaw, the vice president of the convention.

Brooklyn Baptist Revival.

Last night Rev. W. L. Rexford, pastor of Bladen Street Methodist church, preached the sermon at the revival which is going on at the Brooklyn Baptist church. His subject was "Talents," which he handled in a masterly way. The male quartette sang, "We Will Never Say Good-Bye," which made a deep impression upon the large congregation present. There were four new additions to the membership of the church. Tonight Rev. W. G. Hall, pastor of the Southside Baptist church, will preach, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

DEATH OF DR. T. B. KINGSBURY

Distinguished Citizen and Widely Known Man of Letters Died Yesterday Afternoon—Funeral Today.

Dr. Theodore Bryant Kingsbury, the most distinguished man of letters of his generation in North Carolina, died yesterday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock, at his residence, No. 211 South Fifth street, in his 85th year. The funeral services will be held from the residence this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal church, and interment will be in Oxford, N. C., tomorrow morning.

Dr. Kingsbury had been in ill and failing health since January, but the attack of illness which was the direct cause of death has lasted only during the past two weeks, during which time he was confined to bed.

The announcement of his death was received with deep regret by numberless people throughout the country, for he was known and loved by more people than it is ordinarily given a man to touch. During his long life as journalist he had addressed tens of thousands of people who, though they never knew him personally, learned to love and honor him through his writings.

Among the first expressions of regret received by the family yesterday was a telegram from Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, Washington, D. C., who voiced the sentiment of all in saying: "I am deeply grieved at the death of your father. I owe him more than I can ever repay for the inspiration and education I derived from his long and able service as the most accomplished North Carolina journalist."

Dr. Kingsbury is survived by his wife, one son and three daughters, 16 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren, his son being Dr. Walter Russell Kingsbury, and the daughters Misses Mary S., Margaret L., and Maude M. Kingsbury, all of this city. The tenderest and most profound sympathy goes out to the family from the hearts of many people in the city, throughout North Carolina and beyond the State lines.

As a man of letters, it has been said of him, that he was to North Carolina what Lowell was to New England and Dr. Johnson was to England. He was born in the old Guion Hotel in Raleigh, August 29th, 1828. His father, Russell Kingsbury, came to this State from Connecticut between 1812 and 1815. His mother was Mary Bryant Sumner, of Scotland Neck. His kin include many persons of distinction in New England and through his mother he was related to many of the most prominent families in Eastern North Carolina, including the Suttons, Thompsons, and Cottens.

Sixty-two years ago the first of last May he married Miss Sallie Jones Atkinson, a daughter of Gen. Robert Atkinson, of Virginia, who is related to the descendants of Thomas Jefferson, the Randolphs, Lees, Pryors, of Virginia, and the Blounts, Cheshires, Pettigrews and Littlejohns of North Carolina.

Dr. Kingsbury's early education was obtained at Oxford Academy and Lovejoy Military Academy, and he was a graduate of the University of North Carolina. During his literary career he was successively connected in editorial capacity with the Leisure Hour, which he founded; the Raleigh Sentinel, the Raleigh Advocate, the North Carolina Educational Journal, the Indicator, the Tarboro Southerner, Our Living and Our Dead, an historical magazine of the South; the Wilmington Star and the Wilmington Messenger; and during the latters years of his life he contributed articles to the press that have become a part of the literature of the State.

During the years he delivered many addresses throughout the State and in other States. His reputation might be termed National in its range, for at one time Harper's Magazine offered him a position on its staff and Butterick's Journal, of New York, desired to send him to London and Paris as its foreign correspondent.

As a literary man he was many-sided, and in many respects a wonderful man. As a writer he wielded much power, possessing a strong, attractive and convincing style, and he never failed to attract and hold the cultured mind. It has been said that perhaps as a critic he was most powerful. Widely and deeply read, he possessed the ability to criticise and had the courage and strength to do so. He was strong equally in praise or denunciation and held highest ideals which he would sacrifice for no man.

His influence on the thought and ideals of his time cannot be etsimated. Certain it is that he left a deep impress upon his and succeeding generations, and he will rank with the highest and noblest of the sons of North Carolina who have wrought well for their native land.

The pall-bearers from the residence to the train this afternoon will be: Honorary—Messrs. Walter Meares, James Sprunt, John R. Kenly, Clayton Giles, J. D. Bellamy, Walter G. MacRae, Chas. W. Yates, A. D. Brown, E. L. Prince, M. S. Willard, Washington Catlett, William Latimer, Dr. T. S. Burbank, Dr. W. J. Love, Dr. D. W. Bulluck; active, Messrs. DeWitt C. Love, C. C. Covington, R. R. Bellamy, Walker Taylor, George Rountree, H. McL. Green, J. W. Murchison and Mike Cronly.

DROWNED IN CAPE FEAR.

Young Swede Slipped From Pipe Line and Lost His Life.

Oskor Bjork, or Oscar Burke, aged 25, and a native of Sweden, lost his life in the Cape Fear river yesterday at the dredge of the Bowers Southern Dredging Co., below Wilmington. His body was recovered and brought to the city last evening and wil be interred today in Bellevue. No particulars were given concerning the drowning other than that Burke was standing on the pipe line leading from the dredge to the shore, and that he slipped and fell into the river, and was drowned before help could reach him. The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of Mr. W. E. Yopp, where it was prepared for burial.

Large Government Deposit

Mention was made in yesterday's paper that North Carolina is to get $328,000 of the new government deposits distributed in 16 banks in 12 cities and towns. The American National Bank, of this city, has been given $25,000 of this special deposit by the Treasury Department, at Washington, according to notice sent the institution yesterday by Mr. John Skelton Williams, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. The American National Bank, of this city, has already some government deposits but this special deposit under the new ruling of Secretary McAdoo is very gratifying to the directors of the bank, which is one of Wilmington's most prosperous and substantial financial institutions.

REGULAR WEEKLY SEANCE

Council in Session for Nearly Two Hours Yesterday—Number of Matters Considered by Body at This Time.

City Council in regular weekly session for an hour and a half yesterday morning had a number of matters of interest and importance up for consideration, but in nearly every instance action was deferred until a later meeting, being gotten rid of for the time being by reference to committees with instructions to investigate and report.

Mayor Moore presided with all the members in attendance; also City Attorney E. K. Bryan and Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer. Ex-Judge Bryan became city attorney June 1st, and this was the first meeting of the Council since his official connection with the city began.

Woodus Kellum, Esq., was the first to be heard. He was present to submit a petition from a number of fresh meat dealers asking that all meat dealers who apply for market license be required to file a justified bond guaranteeing to pay to the city the full amount of the license tax for the year, $100, also asking that no private market be permitted to do business within 390 feet of the Front street market house. Mr. Kellum said that there was no market within a block of the Front street market now and he took it that there would be no objection to granting the request contained in the last clause of the petition. Mr. Kellum explained that recently the Council amended the tax ordinance so as to make the meat market license payable quarterly instead of annually as heretofore and while it is understood when license is issued it is for the remaining quarters or parts of quarters of the fiscal year, yet there was nothing to prevent persons from taking out license for the Winter months, when there is money in the market business, and then retiring in the Summer months, which would not give to the dealers who pay for a full year the protection that they should have, he said.

Councilman Merritt said that he had the same thing to contend with in the coal and wood business yet he was not asking that any changes be made in the tax ordinance so as to keep out of business all those who are not willing to secure license for the whole year.

Upon motion the matter was referred to a committee composed of Councilmen Loughlin, Merritt and Jones. Councilman Loughlin said that he had rather not be a member of the committee as he had practically decided to oppose the request. However, no change was made in the personnel of the committee as announced.

In behalf of a large contingent of the colored population Hon. John D. Bellamy appeared before the body and earnestly requested that Red Cross street, from 11th to 15th street, be improved so as to afford he colored people a passable roadway to their cemetery. He stated that the improvement of this street would afford a belt line to Oakdale cemetery for the white people. John H. Whiteman, one of the best known and most highly respected colored citizens, also spoke in behalf of the improvement. John has a reputation of being quite an orator and he sustained his reputation in his remarks to the Council. Upon motion of Councilman Chadwick, seconded by Councilman Wood, it was unanimously decided to improve the street and to do it at once.

Mr. T. A. Green, who is building the new commercial hotel at corner of Front and Walnut streets, was present with regard to a complaint that had been made about the sand bins, eight to ten feet in height, that are being used on the work. Mr. Green said that he had been invited or requested to be present. Mayor Moore explained to Council that the chief of police had considered the structural work of the bins rather weak and that the matter had been referred to the city engineer for investigation. The idea was not to work a hardship on Mr. Green, but to determine whether or not the bins were considered dangerous and if so have them replaced by more substantial ones, in which Mr. Green most heartily concurred. He was told to confer with the city engineer with regard to the matter.

The city clerk and treasurer reported that he had received from the receiver of the old bank of New Hanover a dividend check for $337.77, the amount having been on a bond fund. The money has been placed in the general fund.

As a bill for $22.50 against the city of Fayetteville for the service of three Wilmington police officers in that city during the firemen's tournament last year, had been ignored entirely by that municipality, it was ordered, upon motion, that the charge as entered be stricken out.

The bond of Mr. N. J. Williams, as chief of police, for $1,000 with Messrs. Wm. Struthers, Jr., and Louis T. Moore, as sureties was received and accepted.

Councilman Merritt stated that he had just been informed that members of the Council would be liable to indictment if they failed to file with the city clerk and treasurer and publish in one of the daily papers of the city a sworn statement of all the election and campaign expenses. Mr. John S. McEachern, chairman of the County Board of Elections, came in at this juncture and for the benefit of members of Council read the following paragraph from Section 17 of the city charter:

"Every elective officer of the city shall, within 30 days after qualifying, file with the city clerk and publish at least once in a daily paper of the city his sworn statement of all his election and campaign expenses, showing by whom such was contributed to whom the same were paid, and what was the consideration for such payment."

It is provided that any violation of the provisions of the paragraph quoted shall be a misdemeanor, and be a ground for removal from office.

As members of Council qualified and took office on May 6th, they have until Friday of this week to file and have published the statement of their election expenses.

The city clerk and treasurer asked for his own information whether he should deposit in the bank now or wait until the last of the month the city's proportionate part of the months expense of the health department. He said that it was not customary to pay the officers in the department in advance and if they were not to be paid in advance now he suggested that the city might continue in possession of the money until the end of the month and draw interest on it. The matter was referred to the city attorney for an opinion.

License was granted to Mr. J. H. Mohr to conduct a meat market at No. 609 Red Cross street, subject to compliance with the requirement of the health department that the windows be screened. License was also granted Mrs. M. G. Madin, No. 925 North Sitxh street, to conduct a meat market, subject to compliance with the requirements of the health department.

A communication was received from Dr. Nesbitt transmitting a communication from Dr. C. W. Stiles in which complaint was made that the Front street market house has not been screened, flies swarming in the market house in plentiful numbers. Councilman Loughlin, in charge of the Department of Public Affairs, stated that screens had been ordered and would be placed in a few days.

Chief Schnibben, of the fire department, reported 15 alarms during the month of May, causes of alarms being as follows: Sparks from smokestack, 2; accident, 1; defective chimneys, 2; sparks from chimneys, 5; carelessness, 1; fire in woods, 1; unknown, 2; false alarm, 1. The total fire loss for the month will not exceed $6,000, the chief estimates.

The report of the chief of police showed that in May there were 124 arrests, 42 whites and 82 colored.

Report from the health department showed that in May there were 54 deaths, 22 whites and 32 colored; 69 births, 28 whites and 41 colored. Dr. John Thames, assistant superintendent of health, made 47 visits to indigent sick; had 13 office consultations indigent sick; treated as indigent sick 41; 46 permits were issued to the James Walker Memorial Hospital and eight cases of typhoid fever were reported during the month. Forty-eight rooms were fumigated. Mr. John M. Mathers, the plumbing inspector, issued 46 permits for plumbing, 114 fixtures, and made 65 inspections, finding choked sewers and defective plumbing to the number of four. The health officers, reporting through Mr. E. Piner, the chief, made 13.534 inspections; 4,732 closets were ordered cleaned.

The proposition that the city do not sell to the county one-fifth interest in the site on which the incinerator owned by the city and county is located, was left with the Mayor to confer with the chairman of the Board of County Commissioners. If the county does not care to have an interest in the real estate as well as in the incinerator itself the city will be glad to retain title to the property.

At the request of Councilman Jones, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, Mr. H. E. Bonitz, the architect, appeared before the Council and presented preliminary plans for a one-engine fire station at Fifth and Castle streets, the idea of Mr. Jones being that the city might sell the fire station property at Sixth and Castle streets and use the proceeds for a new building at Fifth and Castle. Chief Schnibben informed Council that the present station at Sixth and Castle is in unsafe condition and the necessary repairs would cost about $1,000. He thought that instead of spending so much in repairs it would pay the city

WILL STUDY THE SERVANT PROBLEM IN CHARLESTON.

The housewives of Wilmington will be interested in the following from Saturday's Charleston (S. C.) Evening Post with reference to the decision of the Housewives' League of that place to begin a study of the servant problem and to open a bureau of employment:

"At a well attended mass meeting of the Housewives' League yesterday afternoon at the Museum Hall, the chief topic of discussion was the servant problem that has existed in Charleston for a long time. The reality of this problem has been felt by the members of the league since its organization here, but the time for bringing up its discussion was postponed until the ladies could give further consideration to the subject among themselves.

"The meeting, which was an enthusiastic one, was presided over by the league's president, Mrs. E. S. Mather, who, after the opening proceedings, at once introduced the matter for which the assemblage had been called, that of the servant question. That those present had come together for the accomplishment of a definite object was apparent in the manner in which they entered into the consideration of the ways and means of effecting a remedy for the thoroughly prevalent trials of the housewife in the matter of procuring servants at all efficient.

"After the projection of several plans whereby it was thought some alleviation of conditions could be brought about, it was decided that the following scheme would be most likely of good results. A committee of five ladies will be appointed by the president, which shall begin at once the formulation of some definite campaign of action, aiming at effecting as soon as possible a remedy for conditions as they are now undoubtedly found. This committee, it was decided, should work up the modus operandi of an employment agency, to be under the management of the league, the latter assuming the whole responsibility for agency. It is confidently expected that by this method the securing of a capable servant will no longer be a rare thing in this city, as is now the case. The names of servants will be recorded, and their general desirability as domestic help inquired into.

"When these plans have been thoroughly got up by the committee, another meeting of the league will be held the fourth week in June, at which the prospective methods of procedure will be passed upon by the assembled members, the operation of the employment agency being started at once. It was decided that the merit list committee should compile the names of desirable servants, for publication next week."

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING YESTERDAY AT ST. PAUL'S.

Conspicuously beautiful among the social events of the week was the wedding of Miss Anna Catherine Tiencken, daughter of former Councilman and Mrs. M. G. Tiencken, to Mr. William Charles Cronenberg, which took place yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, the Rev. F. B. Clausen, pastor, officiating.

The church was elaborately and charmingly decorated in green and white, the chancel being banked with palms with beautiful Southern smilax prettily arranged about the ceiling. In the rear glowed eight candles, the whole producing a most beautiful effect.

Long before the hour set for the ceremony the church was filled with friends and acquaintances of the bride and groom. Mendelssohn's Wedding March and Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus were played for the entry and departure of the bridal party by Mrs. E. Schulken, the organist.

The party entered the church as follows: First, two ushers, Messrs. Henry Gerdes and Conrad Wessell; next the first bridesmaid, Miss Louise Vollers; then two ushers, Messrs. David Struthers and E. Fred Banck. Next were two bridesmaids, Misses Augusta Gieschen and Lucile Polvogt, followed by Messrs. Henry Tiencken and John Oldenbuttel, groomsmen; then bridesmaids, Misses Margaret Duls and Katherine Vollers, followed by Messrs. Ferdinand J. Duis and William Bellois, groomsmen. Mrs. E. Fred Banck, came next, walking alone followed by the maid of honor, Miss Gesine Mohr. These were followed by the bride and her father. The groom and the best man, Mr. Henry Cronenberg, entered from the sanctuary. As the bridal party entered the altar they took their places on each side, the groom joining the bride at the end of the aisle where they took their places in front of the minister. The impressive ring service was used and the father gave away the bride.

The bride was handsomely gowned in brocaded satin trimmed with real lace with bridal veil caught with wreath of natural German myrtle. She held a prayer book and shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and wore a beautiful ornament crescent of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom.

The dame of honor wore a gown of white lingerie over pink satin trimmed with lace with white picture hat trimmed with pink sweet peas. The dame of honor was gowned in white lingerie over white satin trimmed with lace with white hat. The bridesmaids wore white lingerie over green satin trimmed with lace with picture hat tdimmed in white and pink sweet peas.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom left on the late afternoon train for New York. They will visit various Northern cities, returning to Wilmington on the 19th, at which time the parents of the bride will give a reception at their home at No. 406 Castle street in their honor. Many beautiful presents consisting of a varied assortment of cut glass, silverware and articles of furniture were on display at the home of the bride. A large number of telegrams of congratulations from friends of the family in other States were received yesterday.

Mr. Cronenberg is in the passenger traffic department of the Atlantic Coast Line here, and the bride is a most popular young lady.

A reception was given Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents in honor of the bridal party. Refreshments were served after which the bride-to-be presented the bridesmaids with white silk fans and the groom gave the groomsmen white silk ties.

Fleet, and Mr. Einar Alexander Palmgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Palmgren, were united in marriage, Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor, being the officiating minister.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and Southern smilax, the color scheme being pink and white. When the hour for the marriage arrived the church was filled with friends and relatives of the happy couple.

Fleet Williams acted as ushers. Mr. Marvin J. Cowell was master of ceremonies.

Before the bridal party entered the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was charmingly rendered by Miss Hattie Gardner, the organist. At the close of the ceremony the march from Mendelssohn was used. The bride, prettily gowned in white charmeuse, with pearl trimmings, and tulle veil with wreath of natural orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of bride roses, entered with her father by whom she was given away. The ring ceremony was used.

A two-week's tour will be taken, the principal stops being at Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Niagara Falls.

—Mr. H. M. Cox, cashier of the Citizens' Bank, of Mt. Olive, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Cox said that the returns from the berry crops were somewhat short in his section on account of dry weather, but business in general is good.

—The hours for the treatment of sailors at the customs house by the acting assistant surgeon of the United States Marine Hospital were erroneously given in yesterday's Star as 8:10 to 9:10 A. M., when it should have been 9 to 10 A. M.

—The Red Men's excursion to Carolina Beach yesterday was one of the biggest affairs of the kind this season. Hundreds of people went down to the popular picnic point on the steamer Wilmington, the return trip being made this morning shortly after midnight. The rain interfered slightly but all had a very enjoyable time of it.

—Tuesday night thieves entered the store of Mr. J. H. Sexton, Front and Queen streets, and are reported to have stolen about $125 in paper and silver money from the safe, which Mr. Sexton had forgotten to lock when he closed up the place. The building was entered through a window which opens on Queen street.

CIDER UNDER BAN

City Chemist Finds Over Three Per Cent Alcohol in It

Solicitor Geo. L. Peschau and Chief of Police Williams announce that analysis of certain ciders sold in the city has shown that the stuff contains up to 3.75 per cent alcohol, and hence is strictly barred from sale under the law. There is no disposition to indict dealers who have sold the stuff unwittingly up to now, but hereafter indictments will be made if the stuff is sold. Numerous times in the past witnesses have gotten on the stand in the Recorder's court and sworn that they got drunk on cider, but their statements have been taken to mean that they had already got drunk on whiskey and finished up on cider; or at least that they had taken whiskey before they drank cider. But it seems that the cider in itself has been pretty strong and it and all other drinks containing any illegal quantity of alcohol will be looked after closely and indictments will follow swiftly.

MOVES TO WILMINGTON.

Mr. Wm. H. Baxley Becomes Local Manager of Insurance Company.

Mr. William H. Baxley, who has for several years been district manager for the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., with headquarters at Whiteville, has resigned his position to accept the position of manager for Eastern North and South Carolina for the Germania Life Insurance Co., of New York. He has located temporarily in the Southern Building, but expects as soon as the Trust Building is completed to have offices on the fifth floor of this building. He will move his family to Wilmington this week, and will become a permanent resident of this city. He is an insurance man of ability, and was for some time, before going with the Mutual Benefit, manager of the Massachusetts Mutual for the State of Florida with headquarters at Jacksonville.

to erect a new building. The plans submitted by Mr. Bonitz were for a two-story structure of local brick with stone trimmings, costing about $5,500. The building would not take all the city property on the corner by about 25 feet, which Mr. Bonitz said could be utilized at any time in the future for a market house in the event it was decided to continue a public market house in that end of the city. On the first floor of the building would be spaces for the fire apparatus, stalls for horses, feed bins, storage rooms, etc., while on the second floor would be sleeping quarters for the firemen, 10 in number, locker rooms, bath rooms, etc. The doors to the first floor would swing inward with vestibule arrangement, which would allow the door to remain open in bad weather.

Councilman Merritt suggested the erection of a building that would compare with the fire station at Fourth and Campbell streets. Councilman Jones said that the city would not have sufficient money, whereupon Councilman Merritt suggested that both the piece of property at the southwest corner of Fourth and Princess streets and at Sixth and Castle streets be sold and the proceeds used for the building at Fifth and Castle, saying that he thought the money from both pieces would be ample to build the kind of fire station that should be put up.

There was objection by Councilman Loughlin and Mayor Moore to the sale of either piece of property, especially at this time when the real estate market is considered "off." So it was decided to refer the matter to a committee composed of Councilmen Jones, Wood and Chadwick.

The Wilmington Ice and Storage Co., which was granted a permit last week to erect an ice chute over Pott's alley at its plant on Dock street, yesterday submitted a bond for $5,000 to indemnify the city in case of accident to any person caused by the contrivance. The bond was not satisfactory as to form, but it was accepted temporarily, and at the next meeting a new bond is to be submitted.

The Loan of $200,000.

Councilman Chadwick, of the Department of Finance and Accounts, made report of the $200,000 he succeeded in borrowing from the Old Dominion Trust Co., Richmond, Va. He said that he was 10 days getting a loan of $5,000 in Wilmington, and while the local banks had offered to let the city have money in case it were needed, he estimated, judging by his experience in getting the small loan, that it would have taken an age to have negotiated a loan for the amount secured from Richmond. Councilman Chadwick said that $95,000 of this amount is needed now: $35,000 due local banks, $10,000 to be paid on the incinerator, $30,000 for bonds and coupons, and $20,000 for current expenses. He said he considered the city fortunate in being able to secure the money. About $100,000 of the amount will remain in the Richmond institution, subject to check, and 3 per cent. interest will be allowed the city on the daily balances, he said.

Upon motion, the city placed an order for 10 maps of Greater Wilmington, being made by Pruden & Battle. The maps will cost $10 apiece and will be delivered about September 1st.

Councilman Wool suggested that the law requiring property owners to put down bitulithic sidewalks where the streets have been permanently improved, be enforced. He said that he thought the police should go over the streets and check up, ascertaining the stretches of sidewalk that have not been improved. No action was taken, though all agreed that the property owners should be compelled to comply with the law as to improved sidewalks.

Must Improve Equipment.

Councilman Merritt introduced an important ordinance, and the people generally of the city will express the hope that it will be enforced. The ordinance provides for an inspection of the horses and vehicles used by the hackmen, and none but the very best will be allowed to do business in the city. Both teams and vehicles must conform to a certain standard. Councilman Merritt said that some of the equipment being used was not only old and rickety looking, giving the visitor a bad impression of the city the minute he alights from his train, but that it is positively unsafe. The ordinance passed unanimously.

THE COTTON MARKET QUIET

Prices Barely Recovered Previous Losses—The Close Steady at a Net Advance of From Three to Nine Points.

New York, June 4.—The cotton market was quiet today, but prices just about recovered yesterday's loss and the close was steady at a net advance of from 3 to 9 points.

The opening was steady, at an advance of one point on August, but generally 1 to 2 points lower, under scattered selling, which was encouraged by a favorable view of weather conditions and the bearish average of private crop accounts. Liverpool however was a shade better than due, private cables reported continental buying of new crop months, and advices from Moscow said that the low government condition report of Monday had rendered Russian spinners somewhat uneasy and stimulated a better demand from that source. This talk of increased interest on the part of foreign spinners seemed to check offerings to some extent and the market firmed up shortly after the call on covering of shorts, foreign buying and moderate support from the local bulls or trade sources.

Rumors that ocean freight room had been engaged for the shipments of 15,000 bales from the local stock during June, imparted a relatively firm tone to July contracts, and a flurry of covering sent that position up to 1,149, or ten points above the closing figures of last night during the middle of the day. Later deliveries followed the advance to the extent of 6 or 7 points above the closing figures of last night, but demand did not become general and the market later eased off a few points from the best. Houses with Southern connections were credited with selling here by balance during the day, and the talk around the ring suggested a bearish average of local sentiment, but offerings were at no time very heavy or aggressive, and it evidently did not require much buying to impart a generally steady undertone to the situation. Considerable attention was attracted by the unsettled sock market, but Wall Street houses were not conspicuous traders, and others from that source were pretty well divided.

Spot cotton, quiet, unchanged; middling uplands, 11.70; sales, 252.

Futures closed steady.

Foley Kidney Pills do not contain habit-forming drugs and are tonic in acting, quick in results. They will help any case of kidney trouble not beyond the reach of medicine.—Robt. R. Bellamy.

EXPERIMENTING WITH BABIES

Five Hundred School Girls Begin the Study of Infant Hygiene

Cleveland, Ohio, June 2.—Five hundred girls in their early 'teens, pupils of the eighth grade of the Cleveland high schools, today began a praitcla study of infant hygiene with real live babies to experiment upon.

Initiative of the course took place at the Sterling school, where Edward Parsch, eight months' old son of Mason Parsch a machinist, was stripped and given a perfectly hygienic bath before an interested class of girls in short dresses.

"I believe this is an epoch-making innovation in public school instruction," said Mrs. Ada B. Williams, city supervisor of domestic science instruction, who is sponsor for the course.

At the Sterling school class today Florence Girz, 14, who had obtained Master Parsch for the experiment, undressed the baby. After the instructor had washed his eyes, nose and ears, other pupils bathed his body. Then Lorna Booth, 14, dried and powdered him and put him to bed. He demonstrated the value of infant hygiene by going to sleep at once.

VOLUME OF BUSINESS GREAT

Series of Bear Dives—Liquidation on Large Scale—Severe Disturbances in Stock Market During Early Trading.

New York, June 4.—Liquidation on a large scale, together with a series of bear drives, caused a severe disturbance in the stock market during the first half of today's session. A rally then occurred and trading became quieter, with a decided change in prices. The volume of business was much in excess of recent averages, amounting to more than 500,000 shares during the first two hours, when the market was most active.

The initial downward impulse came from London, where american securities were depressed substantially in some instances before the opening here. With the beginning of business the market was flooded with selling orders and quotations were forced down rapidly in all directions. Of 187 stocks dealt in during the day, about 100 reached new low levels for the year. In some cases the prices were the lowest since the panic of 1907.

Selling for foreign account was again a prominent factor in depressing the market. London offered the international stocks freely disposing of 25,000 or more shares here on balance. Another unsettling factor was the unofficial report from Washington that further proceedings against the American Tobacco Company and the Standard Oil Company were being contemplated by the administration. The Tobacco stocks broke badly, American Tobacco dropping 17 points. Denial from Washington that any immediate trust prosecutions were in prospect had a good deal to do with steadying the market later, and during the afternoon prices gradually improved. The upturn seemed to be due largely to short covering, however, and could not be said to represent a change in sentiemnt.

The further decline in stocks today led to the calling of loans and while the effect upon the money market has not been pronounced, bankers predicted stiffer rates before the end of the month. Time money was firmer today, but the bond market was weak with declines of 1) to 2 points, in some cases. Total sales, par value, $2,850,000. United States bonds, unchanged on call. Total stocks sales were 780,000 shares.

LYNCHING NARROWLY AVERTED

Sheriff Saves Negro Prisoners from Violence by Heroic Efforts

Atlanta, Ga., June 2.—Prompt action on the part of Sheriff McCurdy, of DeKalb county late today probably prevented the lynching of two negroes, Ernest Mayard and Walter Wilkes, held as suspects in connection with the murder of Mrs. Sarah Stevens and her daughter Nellie, near here last Wednesday.

Officers had taken the negroes to the former site of the Stevens resfdence, in the ashes of which the charred homes of the women were discovered. The prisoners were tied to a tree while the officers were making further search for evidence.

FARMING OUT PLAYERS.

Baseball Expert Presents Views on the Subject.

New York, June 4.—Some of the reasons why baseball players in the big leagues want to change the system under which they are farmed out to minor league clubs at salaries less than those called for in their original contracts, are contained in a letter written by David L. Fultz, president of the Baseball Players Fraternity, to August Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission, and made public today.

"There can be no intelligent denial," reads Mr. Fultz's letter, "of the soundness of the principle that so long as the player is held under a signed contract he must receive the salary of his contract calls for. The common practice of forcing men to go to other teams and allowing these teams arbitrarily to cut their salaries can have neither legal nor moral justification.

"You say after the player is transferred, it is a question of negotiation between him and his new owner. How can it be a question of negotiation when the player is compelled by your regulations to sign with one particular team or quit his profession? There can be no negotiation when one party is absolutely at the mercy of the other; it then becomes a question of duress.

"When the situation is reversed and the major league recruit plays far better ball than he is expected to, he cannot 'welch' on his agreement and refuse to play unless he gets more money. Why, then, should the owner have the right to withdraw from his contract when he finds his bargain is not quite as good as he expected?"

ROYAL

The most economical of all

Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is more economical than any other leavening agent, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Mixtures made in imitation of genuine baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or advertised and offered at a low price. Such are mixtures of unhealthful ingredients. In England, France, Germany and some sections of the United States the sale of alum baking powder is prohibited by law. Alum is a corrosive mineral acid, and physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

The label upon baking powders must show the ingredients.

REBELS CAPTURE MATAMORAS

Federal Defenders Flee Leaving Constitutionalists in Charge

Brownsville, Texas, June 4.—Matamoras, Mexico, across the border from Brownsville, which surrendered to the rebel army of General Lucio Blanco early today, is orderly tonight. All saloons have been closed and those of the Revolutionists not engaged in caring for the wounded and gathering the dead of yesterday's battle are hastily reconstructing the battered defenses in anticipation of the coming of government troops reported on route from Vera Cruz.

Up to a late hour tonight forty bodies had been collected and assembled in a huge pyre. The torch will be applied tomorrow morning.

Rumors were current today that a body of Federal troops were approaching Matamoras from the west. The newcomers, however, proved to be a belated band of Revolutionists on their way to poin Blanco's army.

The city of Matamoras, an important border port of entry, fell into the hands of Mexican Constitutionalists today without further fighting, or with little desperate fighting which characterized the long struggle yesterday. The Federal defenders ran out of ammunition and they slipped away quietly, leaving the rebels in control.

General Blanco's men did not attempt to force the center of the city until 5 o'clock today when they advanced from the market plaza which they had occupied at 3 o'clock Tuesday.

The most remarkable part of the fight put up by the Federal garrison and the volunteers within the city limits is the fact that during most of the day's fighting and during all that of the long night of incessant vigilance and continuous firing, they were practically without superior officers. Dr. Barragan, mayor of the city, who was reported in last night's dispatches to have been killed, made his escape to the American side in the afternoon. This morning Blanco's men rode to the ferry, raised the embargo and opened the bridge. At the light and power plant further up the river, the fiercest fighting of the day took place, Colonel Castro with 250 men lead an attack and dislodged the Federals. The total number of dead accounted for is about 80.

The list of wounded on both sides will not reach 40.

Five women in Blanco's command took an active part in the fighting.

The bull ring was destroyed by fire as was also some 12 other places which were set on fire by bombs thrown by Blanco's men.

Norfolk, Va., June 4.—Dr. Thomas H. Barnes, of Suffolk, aged 82 years, died at his home in Suffolk late today, following a brief illness. Dr. Barnes was formerly a member of the Virginia State Senate and one of the best known men in Tidewater Virginia.

Democratic wool bill fights in the Senate.

Senator Pittman, of Nevada, testified that indirectly he was interested in the tariff on cyanide used in milling gold and had asked for a reduction of duty.

Senator Pittman declared it was evident that lobbies existed in Washington and that men poured in to protest against the Underwood bill when it reached the Senate seemingly "by a concerted movement."

"I know of my own knowledge," said Senator Pittman, "there has been a premeditated, sustained and expensive effort made by the wool growers to intimidate their representatives to support certain measures in the belief that the people favor them."

Senator Pomerene said he had no personal interest in tariff rates. He knew of no money or improper methods used to influence legislation, except "some letters threatening dire destruction unless I voted as they wanted me to. That referred particularly to the wool schedule," he added.

Subpoenas Are Issued.

Late tonight the committee issued subpoenas for former Congressman William S. Bennett, of New York, Otto Carmichael, of New York, formerly a Washington correspondent, Rev. Father G. H. Malone, of Denver, who now is in Washington; G. Harold Powell, Francis E. Hamilton, Harrison Osborne, W. L. Bass, A. A. Irving, William O. Marvin and William F. Fitzgerald. This is a list of names furnished to the committee apart from names brought out in testimony by witnesses. Chairman Overman did not reveal the source of the list or the purpose for which the persons' attendance is sought.

At the night session of the committee Senator Thornton, of Louisiana, testified that he regarded as unfair the methods used by Frank C. Lowry, of the Federal Sugar Refining Company, to create a sentiment for free sugar. He said Lowry had issued circulars under the letter head of a grocers' organization, when in reality, he was representing the cane sugar refiners. Senator Thornton, answered under protest the questions of the committee relating to his property holdings.

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, chairman of the Finance committee, submitted a long list of names of persons who have appeared before the sub-committee on the tariff bill. He also said he owned 2,500 acres of land on which grew corn, cotton and timber, but that the farms were leased to tenants. He defined a lobbyist as one "who persistently hangs around the halls of Congress to influence legislation."

Senators Sheppard, of Texas; Sterling, of South Dakota; Saulsbury, of Delaware; Stone, of Missouri; Swanson, of Virginia, and Lewis, of Illinois, also testified all denying knowledge of any "insidious lobby."

Paterson, N. J., June 4.—Hannah Silverman described as leader among Paterson's idle silk workers, was the chief figure of interest today when 35 strikers and sympathizers were placed on trial charged with unlawful assemblage.

DAVID'S

IT'S STRANGE, WHEN ONE KNOWS THE FACTS

that so many young men, who want snap and style in their clothes, and who appreciate the economy of quality, cling to the grandfatherly idea of made-to-measure clothes.

Clothes-making has advanced far beyond that stage; ready clothes like are better than the average made-to-measure; at $25, for example, you'll find these suits, with fabrics, tailoring, style, and fit such as your made-to-measure at fifty per cent. higher price doesn't equal. As for the very cheap "made-to-measure," it's not to be compared.
